IN THE BEGINNING

By: Olusola Adebayo

International Director, The Kingdom Projects (TKP)

Acts 1:1 “Dear Theophilus: In my first book I wrote about all the things that Jesus did and taught from the time he began his work.” — Good News Translation

The great historian, Dr. Luke, was the writer of the Gospel according to Saint Luke and the Book of Acts. He introduced his second canonical book, titled The Acts of the Apostles, by referring to the things he had written in his first book, the Gospel according to Saint Luke.

Taking my cue from Dr. Luke, I would like to refer my readers to the previous two editions of the Tentmakers Journal commemorative magazines, published in 2016 and 2021.

In these two special editions of Tentmakers Journal, detailed background stories behind the organisation called The Kingdom Projects (TKP) were chronicled under various topics, including:

1. My Encounter with Matthew 24:14
2. The Fruit of a Mustard Seed Called THE KINGDOM PROJECTS
3. One Mission, Numerous Projects
4. The Journey from a Charcoal Signboard to the Present Bus Stop @ Number 7, Christ Avenue, Off University Road, Ilorin

It suffices for me, here and now, to reminisce and make a few statements that give us a picture of the early days of TKP.

IN THE BEGINNING:

1. There was no money, but there was a passion for souls.
2. There were no resources, but there was a strong connection to the Source of all things.
3. There was no house, but there was a divine covering.
4. There were no gadgets, but there was zeal.
5. There were no human connections, but there was divine commendation.
6. There were no assets, but there was access to the throne of grace.
7. There was no car, but there was a readiness to trek and go anywhere GOD sent us.
8. There was no steel signboard, but there was a charcoal inscription on a plank that was attention-grabbing.
9. There was no flashy printing, but there were black-and-white, sun-filmed printings at Opo-Malu that produced unforgettable testimonies.
10. One copy of such a publication fell from the hand of a student at Kwara Polytechnic. A lecturer who saw the paper picked it up, read it, and, that same day, traced the TKP office to register for our mission training programme.
11. The International Director of TKP had no polished grammatical accent, but there was TEAR! tears in prayer, travail for souls, sacrifice, and a burning passion for the Kingdom.

30 TESTAMENTS IN 30 YEARS.

A testament is proof that something is real and true. Our experiences over these 30 years are living testimonies of GOD'S mercies and faithfulness. They are also testaments to GOD'S commitment to HIS Word and HIS work. To the glory of GOD, TKP@30 is a testament to:

1. GOD'S enduring mercies.
2. GOD'S unfailing faithfulness.
3. HIS loving-kindness.
4. The integrity of GOD'S Word.
5. GOD'S commitment to HIS projects.
6. GOD'S sovereignty over the affairs of men.
7. The immutability of GOD'S oath.
8. The supremacy of GOD'S covenant.
9. The bulldozing power of the Gospel message.
10. The unstoppable nature of the Great Commission. Isaiah 9:7
11. The universality of the Gospel and its power as GOD'S means of saving sinners.
12. The fact that we are GOD'S agents of transformation.
13. The fact that we are GOD'S workmanship.
14. The fact that we are created unto good works.
15. The fact that GOD raises Daniels for every generation.
16. The fact that GOD still has His Gideons in this present generation.
17. The fact that the 21st-century Abrahams, Josephs, Moseses, Calebs, Joshuas, Deborahs, Esthers, Dorcases, Davids, Ezekiels, Amoses, Haggais (RBNT), Peters, Pauls, Timothys, Tituses, and Philemons are emerging.
18. The fact that GOD'S work, done in GOD'S way, can never lack GOD'S support and supply.
19. The truth that "though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase."
20. The truth that "the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong..."
21. The fact that Psalm 105:15 and 1 Chronicles 16:22 are still in force: "Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm."
22. The fact that JESUS CHRIST is the personality behind the work of missions.
23. The sufficiency of GOD. 2 Corinthians 3:5
24. The truth that two fish and five loaves can still feed 5,000 people.
25. The truth that when we keep our gaze on JESUS CHRIST, we can walk on water. Matthew 14:29
26. ...when we attempt great things for GOD, we can expect great things from GOD. — William Carey
27. The truth expressed in Jim Elliot's words: "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose."
28. ...in the midst of all the global shakings, we have received a Kingdom that cannot be shaken.
29. The fact that, despite all the worldwide upheavals, GOD still has HIS mark of protection, provision, and peace upon HIS sons and daughters.
30. The fact that GOD is a rewarder.

I'm amazed as I consider our experience of GOD'S nature and character, GOD'S infallible word, GOD'S amazing people, and the certainty of GOD'S reward. All these have given me the confidence to say that:

THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT AND BEAUTIFUL

The Wisdom of the Veterans in Global Missions

The work of global missions has always depended greatly on the wisdom, sacrifices, and experiences of faithful men and women who have gone before us. These veterans in missions are individuals who have spent many years serving across cultures, enduring hardships, preaching the Gospel, planting churches, discipling believers, and building bridges between people groups. Their lives provide valuable lessons for younger generations who desire to participate in the Great Commission given by our Lord, Jesus Christ. A veteran is a person who has a lot of experience in a particular field or activity.

One of the greatest qualities veterans in global missions possess is perseverance. Many of them served in difficult environments where there were language barriers, cultural opposition, poverty, persecution, loneliness, and even threats to life. Yet, they remained faithful because they understood that missions is not merely a human assignment but a divine calling.

Through their years of interaction with different peoples and communities, Veterans in missions carry deep cultural wisdom. They know the importance of humility, patience, and cultural sensitivity. They communicate the Gospel through love, respect, listening, and genuine relationships, emphasizing the need to understand the culture, traditions, and worldview of the people being reached before attempting to minister to them.

Veterans in global missions also remind the Church about the importance of discipleship rather than mere evangelism. Winning souls is important, but mature missionaries understand that true mission work involves nurturing converts, training leaders, and establishing stable local churches that can continue the work independently. This long-term perspective reflects wisdom gained through years of ministry experience. Veterans in Missions exemplified sacrifice and commitment. Many left behind comfort, family, and opportunities in order to obey God's call.

The wisdom of veterans in global missions is a priceless treasure for the Church today. Their experiences, lessons, and testimonies provide guidance for younger missionaries and Christian leaders. As the world continues to change rapidly through technology and globalization, the Church must not ignore the voices of those who have faithfully labored in missions for decades. Learning from their wisdom can inspire the next generation to continue the work of global evangelization with greater effectiveness, humility, and spiritual maturity.

Another important aspect of the wisdom of these veterans is the understanding of prayer and dependence on God. Many experienced missionaries testify that human strength, financial resources, and educational qualifications alone cannot sustain missionary work. They have learned through experience that prayer, obedience, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit are essential in every aspect of missions. Armed with this understanding, TKP through the years, has been able to establish various prayer platforms that enable young and old to get involved in intercession for missions. One of the arms of TKP known as the RETIRED BUT NOT TIRED (RBNT) is a platform where elderly people contribute their own quota to Global Missions through intercession. This has been a strong force to reckon with as the mission activities advance in the organization.

As TKP marks its 30th anniversary, we thank God for the life and ministry of every individual who has contributed to the growth and impact right from inception. To the veterans who have been running with the vision, I say "Happy 30th Anniversary"

UNCLE BAYO & ANTY NAOMI FAMONURE

WHAT CAN WE SAY!

Do you see a man diligent in his duties? He shall dine with kings, not with mean men. These are words from the Holy scriptures and they apply so aptly to Sola and Funmi Adebayo. Like a little acorn, The Kingdom Project (TKP), began and has grown to the oak it is now. The simplicity, thoroughness and excellence that characterizes the entire operations of TKP is a manifest testimony to the grace of God and to the extent God can take a soul submissive to Him. As this 30th Anniversary is marked, I salute the resilience of Sola and Funmi and celebrate the goodness of the living God. To Him alone be glory for ever. Amen.

Sola & Funmi Adebayo had their mission training under Uncle Bayo & Anty Naomi Famonure from 1993 to 1996

GOODWILL MESSAGE

With hearts full of joy and gratitude to God, I bring you warm felicitations from Chapel Of Redemption on the celebration of your 30 years of Kingdom Impact.

Your place in our lives and ministry as a congregation has been a blessing and of positive impact. You have not let Christ down both with your life and ministry amongst us. You are an encouragement to many both old and young people, which personally I am among, and for this we praise the Lord.

Psalm 118:23 says "This is the Lord's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes."

For 30 years, TKP has stood as a light in darkness, a voice for truth, and a gatekeeper for this generation. You have run with sincerity of heart and decision of purpose, and heaven has backed you.

Genesis 22:17 says "Thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies."

Several lives you laboured over in God's Kingdom are already fulfilling this prophecy in our day and many will so do in the days ahead.

Through teaching, missions, discipleship, and fervent prayer, you have raised men and women who stand in the gap for nations. You have proven that one generation can influence the next when they are sold out to God.

REV'D & MRS T M OLABODE
Pastor, Chapel Of Redemption UMCA, Ilorin, Kwara State.

I, my home, and the entire Chapel Of Redemption celebrate with you. We honour the labour, the sacrifice, and the obedience that has sustained this work for three decades. The Lord who began this good work in you will perfect it according to Philippians 1:6.

My prayer for TKP at 30:

May the next 30 years be greater than the first. May your gates be enlarged, may your influence be multiplied, and may your fire never go out. May God raise more gap-standers from your altar to possess cities and nations for Christ in line with Isaiah 54:2-3, in Jesus mighty name.

Congratulations on 30 years of the Lord's faithfulness. The best is yet to come!

MY JOURNEY WITH TKP

I give God all the glory for orchestrating my connection with TKP in 1997.

I was visiting a friend who lived behind the veterinary clinic when I noticed a crude wooden signboard nailed to a tree opposite her house. On it, the letters TKP had been written in charcoal. Curious, I asked my friend what it meant, but she did not know.

A few months later, the International Director visited the bank where I worked to open an account in the name of The Kingdom Projects (TKP). I asked him if it was the same TKP I had seen on that simple signboard months earlier. He smiled and confirmed that it was. In his characteristic manner, the Director gave me a brief introduction to the ministry and shared with me about that year's Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC). From that moment, I made it a point to participate in as many TLC programs as I could.

TLC transformed my perspective on Christmas. It gave me a deeper, more fulfilling understanding of the season, and it ignited in me a genuine passion for souls through missions. My children eagerly looked forward to every year we were privileged to participate.

My deeper involvement in the ministry, especially after my retirement from the bank, has contributed immensely to my spiritual growth. To the glory of God, I am an alumnus of the Tent Makers' Institute (TI), and I look forward to completing the TLC Leadership Training as soon as possible.

Every training, fellowship, and program has enlightened, empowered, and equipped me for a closer walk with God and more effective service in His Kingdom. Through TKP, I have experienced God growing me from strength to strength.

I have also witnessed the mighty hand of God through the ministry's remarkable expansion into a global force for advancing the Kingdom. It is a great privilege to be part of what God is doing through TKP.

May God continue to pour out abundant grace upon the leadership of TKP for even greater exploits, in Jesus' name. Amen.

IT IS NORMAL TO START SMALL, BUT ABNORMAL TO REMAIN SMALL

Olusola Adebayo

One of the stories that gets me so excited in the Bible is the parable of the mustard seed. It was sown by faith on good soil. The diligence of man met the faithfulness of God. With time, the smallest of all seeds germinated, began to grow, and eventually became a large tree under which the birds of the air could take refuge.

Whenever I am involved in the beginning of a project, this parable always gives me great impetus. The mustard seed started small, but it did not remain small. This is because living things grow. Whatever work the Lord has committed to your hands is expected to grow.

TKP started very small. It was normal, and it was biblical. But to remain at that same level would have been abnormal and unbiblical.

I doff my cap to those who identified with us in the days of small beginnings. There is a banker who joined us when we had no address. She was there when we commissioned our second missionary, whom we sent to Senegal in 2003. Not only is she still actively involved in TKP today, but she has also become a very strong stakeholder in the organization.

TOUCHING LIVES AT CHRISTMAS (TLC Outreach) started in 2001 with 80 participants. Today, the annual number of participants is in the neighborhood of 10,000. The one centre we had at the beginning has grown to 232 centres in 24 countries.

MISSIONARY EXPOSURE AND EXPERIENCE (MEE) started in 2002 with 12 people who spent two weeks in Niger Republic during Easter. As of Easter 2026, 269 brethren participated in MEE across six countries. A total of 805 people received medical attention, while 501 people made decisions for Christ.

Numerically and in every area, God has increased TKP, and He is still increasing us. I admit that it could be better, and by the grace and mercy of God, it will get better. We will not rest on our oars until our better becomes our best.

I challenge every bona fide stakeholder of TKP to live up to the name and responsibility entrusted to them. If we call you a leader, please lead genuinely and be an example of the truth that living things grow.

Do a sincere assessment of where the work God committed to your hands started and where it is today. If it started small and is still small today, something abnormal and unbiblical is going on. Address it quickly!

The banker I referred to earlier started supporting TKP around 2002 with ₦200 every month. After some years, she increased it to ₦500 monthly. Later, it became ₦2,000, then ₦5,000. Today, she supports TKP with over ₦100,000 every month.

What a living testimony of the possibility of growing in impact as a missions financial partner!

The Shunammite woman also started her support for Elisha in a small way. She increased her support with time until she eventually built an upper chamber for the man of God. 2 Kings 4:8–37.

Let us be practical about this matter. Traditional missionaries, church planters, tentmakers, mobilizers, outreach coordinators, and others involved in the work of the Kingdom: I passionately encourage you to audit your performance. Examine yourself.

It is normal for you to have started small some years ago, but it is abnormal to remain in the same spot.

In the Bible and in the secular world, history is filled with many people worthy of emulation who started small, unnoticed, with very little seed or capital. Sometimes, their talents were hidden beneath the mirage of challenges. Yet, through sheer diligence and faith in God, they ended up accomplishing great things.

I am writing this pastoral letter so that your story, too, could become one of those stories of starting small but ending exceedingly great.

Joseph received a revelation of where God was leading him, but his journey began in a seemingly hopeless pit, with uncertainty about what his hateful brothers might do to him. From the pit, he descended into prison before God eventually lifted him to the throne He had planned for his life.

Very normal to start small, but abnormal to remain small.

One evidence that Joseph was growing was the fact that, throughout his journey, God kept commending him and giving him favor, regardless of the challenges around him.

Saul was going to become the first king of Israel, but he was not introduced to us in a cozy parlour, eating a sumptuous meal. We first met him as a dutiful son searching for his father's missing donkeys. Later, when he misbehaved, God reminded him that he had started small. That was confirmation that Saul truly started from a very small place.

So, it is very normal and biblical to start small!

David was a man after God's heart. He was destined to succeed the backslidden Saul as king of Israel. Yet, his introduction to the public showed him as a lowly, seemingly insignificant but diligent young man.

Instead of carrying his shoulders high, he was in the bush tending his father Jesse's sheep and sometimes risking his life in the process. He was so seemingly insignificant that Samuel did not initially hear of him as a potential candidate for kingship.

David started small, but he did not remain small.

Samuel started small. He was running errands in the temple. He grew to become a national prophet.

Are you currently charged with the assignment of running errands in a ministry organization? The seed of greatness is in you. If you nurture it with humility, integrity, transparency, and diligence, your future is bright and beautiful.

Remember that Esther also started life as an orphan. She did not remain small.

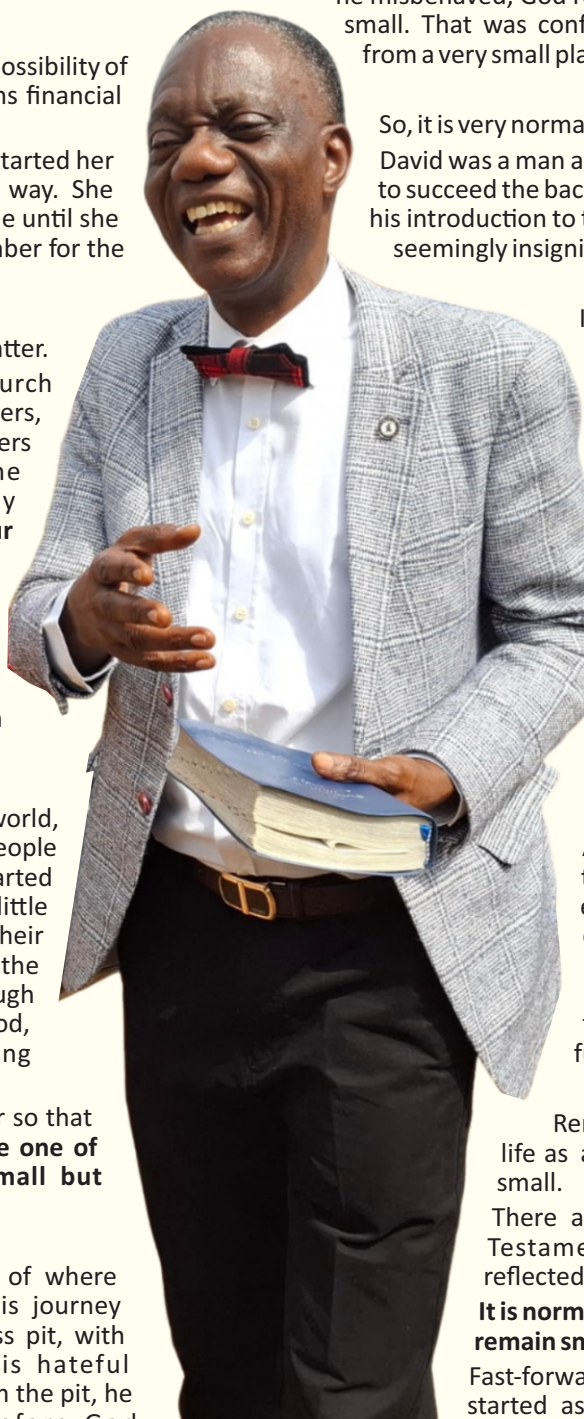

There are countless others in the Old Testament whose lives and exploits reflected this truth:

It is normal to start small, but abnormal to remain small.

Fast-forward to the New Testament. Peter started as a fisherman but ended as an apostle. Paul started as a persecutor but ended up becoming a foremost apostle.

The Church in the Acts of the Apostles started with a relatively small number of people but soon grew to three thousand, then five thousand, and continued to grow.

Sudan Interior Mission (SIM), now known as Serving In Mission, was started by three men: Rowland Victor Bingham, a Canadian; Walter Gowans, a Canadian; and Thomas Kent, an American. Today, SIM International has more than 4,000 missionaries serving in more than 70 countries.

There are many other organizations with similar testimonies.

Selah.

"Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase."

Job 8:7

"Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin, to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand."

Zechariah 4:10 (New Living Translation)

From these two Scriptures, we learn that what we may call a small beginning can be what God uses to produce something great.

The two fish and five loaves of bread were all that Jesus needed to feed five thousand people. Your academics, career, business, possessions, or ministry may today look like a mustard seed. But inside that seed is great potential—potential to become a large tree that will serve not only you but countless others.

I know a young lady who started her career in the financial sector with a salary that could barely take care of her transportation and feeding, not to mention house rent. To be specific, she was working with a government establishment responsible for tax and revenue services.

When she got another job in Lagos, the salary was still very small. Nevertheless, she started her career and remained diligent in her work.

The faithfulness of God met her faith, determination, and diligence.

To the glory of God, she is now a senior manager in a leading bank in a first-class city in North America.

It is normal and biblical to start small, but it is abnormal and unbiblical to remain small.

Most people who made it to the pinnacle of their careers—whether in the military, police force, medicine, engineering, teaching, or other professions—started from the bottom of the ladder.

I started out as a financially poor missionary, but I was very rich in ideas, diligence, and resilience.

The revelation that kept me going was that I always saw a picture of God watching me and examining my heart to see whether I would complain, become angry, take an alternative route, or give up.

In a way that is beyond human understanding or calculation, over the years, God moved me from one financial level to another. He is still at work in me today, both to will and to do His good pleasure.

Philippians 2:13 says:

"For it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure."

He is still building me. Greater glories are still ahead of me, in the land of the living.

"For the LORD shall build up Zion; He shall appear in His glory."

Psalms 102:16

Let what God has done through TKP challenge you to live according to this enduring truth:

IT IS NORMAL TO START SMALL, BUT ABNORMAL TO REMAIN SMALL.

Liberation Time Evangelistic Ministry, Akure, Ondo state.

What began as a grain of mustard seed thirty years ago has grown into a big tree with branches large enough to accommodate thousands of Christian workers across several denominations and nations of the world. Whoever despises the day of little beginnings is ignorant of the way of God. The exploits we are witnessing today and the reports we are hearing now from TKP far outweigh our imagination and comprehension back then. At 30, TKP is a platform for Christian men and women of all walks of life to express their gifts and serve God's purpose in their generation. We can only stand in awe of God's grace and mercy.

For more than thirty five solid years, we have been following brother Sola and sister Funmi Adebayo. Their focus and commitment to God are as amazing as their consistency in the ministry God birthed through them. Like many others, we have drunk from the well of God's wisdom in their lives. They are not just worth-hearing; they are worth-following.

Thank you brother Sola and sister Funmi Adebayo for yielding to the Lord in spite of all odds. Thank you for despising the shame associated with a ministry like this in the mid nineties. Thank you for holding on for the past thirty years. May the Lord whose you are and whom you serve preserve you and TKP for greater works than these in Jesus' name!

MY JOURNEY WITH THE KINGDOM PROJECT (TKP)

Dr. Mrs. Janet Oladejo

My journey with The Kingdom Project (TKP) began in 1998 during my NYSC orientation camp at Yikpata, Kwara State, where I was serving at the time. The TKP Director was invited to give a mission awareness talk, and something in me came alive. I had never heard such a message since giving my life to Christ, and my heart was stirred with a deep longing to go all the way with my Master, Jesus. Right there, I resolved to join TKP as an associate missionary. That single decision opened a door I never imagined would shape so much of my life and ministry.

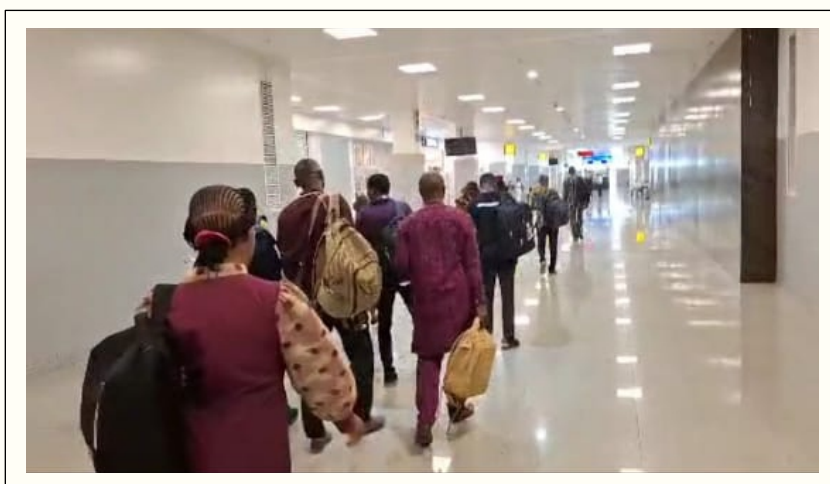

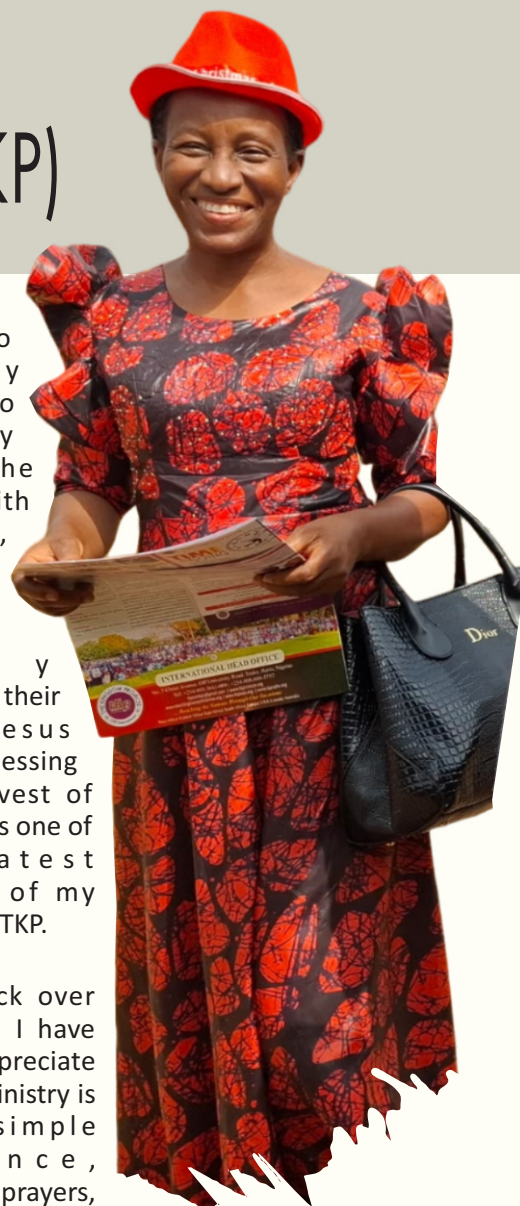

Over the years, TKP has given me the privilege of orienting new staff, leading practical sessions during Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) and the International Leadership Retreat (ILR), leading prayers at various meetings, and mentoring several individuals. Through these opportunities, I gained confidence, learned to communicate effectively with larger audiences, and grew spiritually in ways I could not have on my own.

I have also had the joy of participating in TKP's monthly, bimonthly, quarterly, and annual outreaches, both within and outside Kwara State, as well as mission outreaches to the Republic of Benin and Sierra Leone. During these medical outreaches, welfare materials are distributed, medical consultations and laboratory tests are provided, and medications are given free of charge.

The outreach that remains dearest to my heart is the one to Sierra Leone, tagged "Festival of Mercy." There, witnessing to just one person would often draw several others who eagerly waited to listen. They received the message with open hearts, and one after another, they surrendered their lives to Jesus Christ. Witnessing such a harvest of souls remains one of the greatest privileges of my journey with TKP.

Looking back over these years, I have come to appreciate that TKP's ministry is built on simple obedience, consistency, prayers, consecration and sacrificial service. God has used its leader to equip and raise ordinary people for extraordinary Kingdom work. What has impressed me most is TKP's commitment to diligently following up new converts and intentionally raising indigenous missionaries.

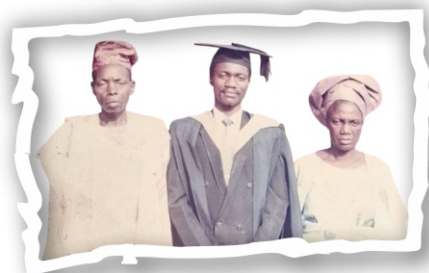

As TKP marks its 30th anniversary, my prayer is that the years ahead will bring even greater expansion, deeper impact, and many more committed labourers and missionaries for the harvest field. I am deeply grateful to have been part of this remarkable journey, and I look forward to seeing more nations reached until TKP's work spans every continent of the world.

To God be all the glory for 30 years of faithful Kingdom work through TKP.

WHAT WE DO

1. We provide a forum for fellowship, revival and mutual edification among Christian Teachers.
2. We provide resources (magazines, books, tracts, documentaries, messages on Cds) for Christian Teachers' personal development.
3. We train Christian Teachers on how to combine teaching with the responsibility of raising disciples for Christ Jesus.
4. We deploy teachers as missionaries to various unreached nations of the world.
5. We supply Teachers where needs are most urgent.
6. We establish schools for needy rural communities.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

There are three specific areas in which you can be involved:

- I. YOU CAN BECOME AN ACT MISSIONARY
- II. YOU CAN BECOME AN ASSOCIATE
- III. YOU CAN BECOME A PARTNER

MEMBERSHIP

Membership of ACT is open to all. Prospective members can be Tertiary Institutions Lecturers, High School Teachers, Primary School Teachers, Instructors in Computer Schools, Youth Workers and Church Leaders, Final Year Students of Higher Institutions, Mission Leaders, Researchers, and born-again Professionals.

TRANSFORMING THE CLASSROOM INTO A MISSION FIELD

Timothy Adesola

President, Fellowship of African Christian Teachers (FACT)

As The Kingdom Projects (TKP) marks 30 impactful years of advancing God's Kingdom, we celebrate with gratitude the faithfulness of God in raising "an exceedingly great army" (Ezekiel 37:10). Among the many arms through which this vision has found expression is the Fellowship of African Christian Teachers (FACT), a platform committed to advancing Christ's Kingdom through teaching.

Established in 2002, FACT was birthed from the conviction that the classroom is not merely a place of academic instruction but a strategic mission field where lives, values, and destinies are shaped daily. Over the years, God has used FACT to mobilise Christian teachers across Africa to see their profession as a divine calling and an avenue for Kingdom impact.

Looking back, we celebrate the seeds that were planted in faith. Through training, conferences, outreaches, mentoring, and discipleship initiatives, many teachers have been awakened to the reality that teaching is ministry. Christian educators from diverse tribes, tongues, and backgrounds have been equipped to combine excellence in education with intentional gospel witness. Many have gone beyond the walls of their schools into communities and unreached regions, carrying the light of Christ through both word and service.

In the present season, FACT continues to stand as a growing movement of passionate educators committed to transforming lives through godly influence. In a world where moral values are increasingly being challenged, the Christian teacher remains a vital instrument in shaping minds and nurturing future leaders with biblical truth and godly character. Today, FACT serves as a platform for encouragement, training, and missionary mobilisation for teachers who desire to serve God faithfully within and beyond their classrooms.

Our vision remains clear: to see Christians from diverse backgrounds across Africa reaching the unreached, both locally and globally, with the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. Through our mission, Advancing Christ's Kingdom Through Teaching, we continue to inspire teachers to recognise every lesson, every interaction, and every classroom as an opportunity for Kingdom advancement.

Looking ahead, we see even greater possibilities. We envision a stronger network of Christian teachers across Africa, empowered by the Holy Spirit, equipped with sound biblical understanding, and committed to educational and missionary excellence. We believe God is raising teachers who will not only impact schools but also influence nations. The future of FACT is one of expansion, deeper discipleship, cross-cultural mission engagement, and strategic partnerships for global Kingdom influence.

As we commemorate TKP@30, we honour the fathers, mothers, leaders, and faithful labourers whose sacrifices have sustained this vision. We also call on Christian teachers everywhere to arise and take their place in God's army. The classroom remains one of the greatest mission fields of our time.

Indeed, God is still building an exceedingly great army. Through FACT, may many more teachers become torchbearers of truth, transforming classrooms, communities, and nations for Christ.

My Stewardship in TKP Missions through FACT

I see grace. All I see is grace!

Mrs Toyin Mercy Popoola.

Fellowship of Africa Christian Teachers (FACT) is a ministry arm of THE KINGDOM PROJECTS (TKP) with a mandate to help Christian teachers understand the centrality of their profession to God's agenda for this end-time. FACT commenced operations in January 2023. Through FACT, we provide a forum for fellowship, revival, and mutual edification among Christian teachers. We also establish schools in needy rural communities, along with other dynamic activities.

Milestones & Impact

- Eight schools have been established — seven in Nigeria and one in Ghana
- Active FACT Chapters in Kwara, Ondo, Osun, Abeokuta, Plateau States in Nigeria.
- Christian teachers have been awakened to their responsibilities through Seminars, Conferences, and Retreats held in various part of Nigeria and other African Countries.

My Role & Divine Appointment

By God's grace, I was appointed to serve as the National Secretary for FACT National Council/Board of Trustees in January 2022, it was a divine appointment that helped to realign the FACT National Council. Since then, the Council has been functioning effectively. This divine appointment has also helped me to improve tremendously in my communication, administrative and mobilization skills. Each seminar, conference, retreat, online meeting, and mobilization effort has been an opportunity to serve God and humanity — an opportunity I do not take for granted.

God's Faithfulness in My Journey

My service at the TKP Headquarters as a Secretary for 3 years & 3 months (2015 – 2018) and later appointment as FACT National Secretary in 2022, alongside assisting my husband in coordinating the TKP Akure Zonal Office, has opened me to greater opportunities in global missions. It has given me beautiful experiences of God's faithfulness and above all, fulfillment in life and ministry. I joined TKP as a single lady in 2015 and in the course of my stewardship, God blessed me with my beloved husband (Arc. Oladayo Popoola) and two beautiful daughters (Daniella & Dayspring).

Through FACT, God has kept me active in global missions, and for this I am grateful.

Happy 30th Anniversary to TKP!

GOD- GIVEN & GOD-LED, GOD-FUNDED & GOD-BLESSED VISION

I greatly rejoice with this God- given, God-led, God-funded, and God-blessed vision, whose service is the heart-beat of God, which is soul winning!!! The uniqueness of its operational focus is praise-worthy and unto HIM alone, all glory belongs.

The various TKP arms are the arms of God, strong, purposeful and effective. The teaming hearts that join up in the vision and services cut across ages, professionals, ministries/denominations and geographical boundaries etc. It is the evidence of God picking His elects everywhere to join the CHARIOT. Everyone getting on board, perceives that GOD IS THERE (TKP) (Ezekiel 48: 35)!

Finally, TKP's operational scope has been a wide and fertile training field for all to be equipped for service in the Kingdom of God. For these and more reasons,

I identify with the human agents whom God has raised and anointed for His purpose in the persons of the International Director and his Assistant.

May you NEVER fail, fall or falter.

And may your end be GREAT unto eternal life in Jesus name.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

PASTOR JOHN OLUKOYA.
FACT Chaplain

A Journey of FAITH AND SERVICE

Serving as a Trustee and participating in mission work has been a deeply rewarding journey of faith and purpose. Every mission has reinforced my belief that true leadership is demonstrated through service, compassion, and a willingness to make a positive difference in the lives of others, especially reaching out to schools in remote places and the less privileged.

As a member of the Board of Trustees of FACT, I am grateful for the opportunity to serve alongside committed individuals who share a passion for advancing God's work and bringing hope to communities. These experiences have strengthened my faith and reminded me that even the smallest act of kindness can have a lasting impact.

As we celebrate TKP @ 30, I thank God for His faithfulness throughout the years. It is an honour to be part of this remarkable legacy, and I remain committed to supporting the mission with integrity, humility, and love, trusting that the best is yet to come.

What I Cherish Most in TKP MISSIONARY TEACHERS

Dr. Mrs. Christiana Famro
Supervisor, TKP Educational Services

Introduction

Some of the most profound lessons I have learned from Missionary Teachers of The Kingdom Projects (TKP) were not taught in the classrooms of Ambassadors Nursery and Primary Schools (ANPS). They were revealed through often unnoticeable moments during Inspection Visits, Retreats and other scheduled school events. These were moments when I observed sacrifice, kindness, patience, and witnessed steadfast, unfeigned dedication. Time and again, I have watched these individuals serve quietly, lead humbly, and remain faithfully committed even when their efforts seemed unnoticed. Their example shows that true missionary spirit is not always measured by accomplishments alone, but by the virtues that shape every action, every interaction and every relationship.

Nostalgia and Palpable Expectation

Over the years, I have grown accustomed to undertaking every School Visitation to any ANPS Mission Field – and indeed, every opportunity to engage with ANPS teachers and pupils – with eager anticipation. For me, these visits and interactions have evolved into far more than routine engagements or obligations; they are moments that evoke a deep sense of expectation and excitement, offering fresh opportunities for meaningful connection and purpose.

Whether undertaken as Inspection Visits in the regular school term, during Missionary Teachers' Retreats, at End-of-Year programs or any other special events, my expectations invariably soar. Each occasion possesses its own distinctive charm and significance, unveiling yet another chapter in a continually unfolding narrative marked by the unmistakable fingerprints of our ever-faithful God.

Truth is, there is always something new and praiseworthy, some novel thing that recently happened, some fresh testimony of God's grace at work and of answered prayers. It could be a new family added for discipling; miraculous healings of pupil(s) and/or parent(s), a recently established house church in the community; miraculous deliveries of babies or from bondage; a broken home/marriage restored; or some pupil(s) demonstrating extraordinary improvement in academic performance. At other times, it is the joy of having pupils from previously hostile/resistant communities re-enrolled back in ANPS; or a providential breakthrough in a long-standing school need/project, a new convert pupil brandishing his/her New Testament, or simply the excitement of hearing the pupils sing a recently learned French song or Chorus with boundless gusto! The possibilities always seem endless.

ANPS Missionary Teachers – The Real Deal!

Through our many shared experiences, I have had the distinct privilege and pleasure of witnessing in these Missionary Teachers qualities that extend far beyond effective teaching and faithful ministry. Time and again, I have observed a quiet strength of character, a steadfast devotion to duty, and an unwavering pursuit of excellence. These virtues, deeply rooted in their frequently expressed conviction that teaching is the noblest of Callings are doubtless inspired by their shared desire to emulate the timeless precepts and practices of the quintessential Teacher Himself, the Great Rabbi from Galilee, even Jesus the Christ. Their humility, faithfulness, perseverance, compassion, diligence, dedication, and commitment are not merely ideals they profess, but virtues consistently reflected and tangibly expressed in their daily lives and ministry as summarised below:

- Humility – Welcoming feedback, giving credit to others, remaining approachable, teachable and willing to learn.
- Faithful Perseverance – Maintaining enthusiasm, dedication, trustworthiness, and high standards in curricular/co-curricular assignments and ministry in the face of challenges, setbacks, or limited resources.
- Selfless Commitment and Compassion – Going the extra mile to support struggling pupils, take on additional duties, creatively improvising/adapting teaching aids and learning methods.
- Team Spirit and Camaraderie – Supporting one another, fostering unity and mutual respect, and willingly helping wherever needed beyond assigned responsibilities.
- Integrity and Diligence – Demonstrating honesty, accountability, consistency and faithfully fulfilling commitments.
- Joyful Service – Serving with a positive attitude, encouraging others, and bringing enthusiasm and grace to ministry activities.

- Spiritual Maturity and Community Spirit – Maintaining a strong spiritual life through regular prayer, Bible study, fellowship meetings, and discipleship, while serving as models of Christlikeness, encouragement, and guidance within the community.

Conclusion

In conclusion, my experience with ANPS teachers have further reinforced the truth that the most powerful lessons are often not taught through words alone, but through the witness of lives faithfully lived for Christ. Beyond well-prepared lesson plans, diligently maintained registers, expertly managed classrooms, effectively taught lessons, and the many other curricular and co-curricular responsibilities they undertake, what I cherish most about TKP Missionary Teachers is the way they consistently embody and live out the truths of Colossians 3:12–17:

“Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; And above all this put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, ... Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, ... And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the Name of the Lord Jesus...”

Indeed, Missionary Teachers of The Kingdom Projects are the Real Deal! Praise the LORD!

FROM PERSECUTION TO PURPOSE

At a very tender age, Abdullateef encountered Jesus Christ through a gospel outreach in his community. His decision to follow Christ, however, came at a great cost. His family confiscated his Bibles, opposed his faith, and eventually pressured him to abandon his education. The persecution intensified and got to a point he was disowned and driven from home for refusing to participate in traditional rituals.

Yet, what appeared to be rejection became a pathway into God's purpose.

On April 24, 2023, after being driven from home in the night around 2am, he was received by TKP missionaries who were earlier instrumental to his encountering the Saviour, JESUS CHRIST. He joined the team of TKP missionary teachers.

TKP arranged for him to acquire a 6-month theological training at Redemption Christian Bible College. This Diploma in Theology helped Lateef greatly. He gained practical experience in prayer, discipleship, preaching, worship, and evangelism.

Today, Fayobi carries no bitterness toward those who persecuted him. Instead, he prays that Muslims everywhere will encounter Jesus Christ as he continues to share the testimony of his salvation.

His message to young believers is simple and profound: “With God, all things are possible. Serve the Lord wholeheartedly with your strength while you are young.”

His journey is a powerful testament to how God can turn persecution into purpose, rejection into deployment, and a young believer's encounter with Christ into a life dedicated to reaching the nations.

FELLOWSHIP OF AFRICA CHRISTIAN TEACHERS (FACT) Started as a subsidiary of TKP in January 2003

Prior to the very first seminar, TKP int'l Director conducted some research which included a survey of some rural and urban communities in Niger Republic, Burkina Faso, Mali And Senegal in the year 2002.

Conferences, seminars, beginning of the school session with the LORD and various outreaches are parts of the activities of FACT.

These activities have been carried out at the International level, National, Regional, Zonal and Local levels.

1. ANPS ILOGUN

(ANPS Ilogun is a blessing to humanity.)

The school started in September 2021 through the combined visionary leadership and missionary efforts of TKP headquarters and TLC Abeokuta to meet the educational needs of children in rural communities, where there is little or no access to education.

Since its inception the school has been a blessing to the community. The children's lives are being imparted positively and also helping to enthrone the lordship of Christ in the heart of the pupils and their parents.

We have been offering quality and standard education to the pupils with the little resources available. Some of our pupils have been outstanding academically. We give glory to God.

The school has also given us platform to reach out to the parents of our pupils and also other adults in the community with the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ through personal evangelism, counselling and our discipleship effort.

We thank God for this opportunity to be an agent of change through TKP-FACT.

Ifeyemi & Olajumoke Olomola.

2. ANPS ATODA/ ESARUN

(REACHING HOMES THROUGH CHILDREN AND THE WORD OF GOD)

ANPS Atoda/Esarun exists to raise Godly children and reach families for Christ and to transform the society.

Mission and Evangelism: ANPS Atoda/Esarun has been committed to reaching homes through children and the Word. Our evangelism targets pupils, parents, and the entire community. We engage pupils through discipleship, fellowship, and school programs; parents through home visits and fellowship; and the community through Bible studies and follow-up. God has been faithful, and many are hearing the Gospel and coming to Christ.

Education and Testimonies: By God's grace, we have been providing quality education while raising children with godly values and character. Pupils who once struggled with English are now improving. There are many testimonies: Godly children are being raised, parents are attending church, and God has performed healings and answered prayers. Many have also surrendered their lives to Jesus and are being followed up.

Community Impact: our lives as missionaries are making a positive impact. Through our conduct and relationship as a couple, community members are being influenced and seek counsel from us. We have seen that living out the Christian faith draws people to Christ more than words alone.

We give thanks to God for His faithfulness to us on this mission field and celebrate TKP @ 30.

Pastor & Mrs Philip Donald.

3. ANPS AFON

(One Stone, bringing down many Goliath)

We are familiar with bible story of David killing one Goliath with a single stone, however in the present days, Ambassadors Nursery and Primary school Afon can be likened to a single stone; sent forth by The Master to bring down the stronghold of spiritual darkness, illiteracy among young children as well as scarcity of water in Afon and other neighboring villages within Asa local government area of Kwara state.

Since its establishment in 2019, the school has continued to make remarkable all-round impact in the lives of children and families in Afon and other twelve neighboring villages in the said area.

As Jesus continues to use this school like Peter's boat, we have seen:

- School children being genuinely saved and received the baptism of the Holy spirit
- Stronghold of religion being broken in the lives of Parents through Christ-like living and various evangelism activities
- Scarcity of water finally laid to rest in Irede village
- Quality education and morals being rightly impacted for better life and glorious future. etc.

Even in the face of challenges, criticism and silent persecution from those of opposite religion, we are glad that Jesus has never and will never lose a battle.

Finally, to share with us the full dose of joy or probably join this Jesus' moving train, we beckon unto you as Phillip said in John 1:46 "Come and See".

Pastor Titus Kehinde.

4. ANPS ASA-DAM

Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School Asa-Dam (a city project) was established on 20th of September 2021, and was pioneered by Adewale Adimula and his wife Omolara Adimula. The school started with three pupils who happened to be the children of the field leader.

Being a mission school, her objective is to give quality education along with the gospel of Christ to the pupils and message of salvation and discipleship to their parents and the entire community. In view of these her activities includes, teaching to inculcating academic knowledge, moral lesson and knowledge of the word of God into the pupils, vibrant weekly pupils and teachers' fellowships in addition to one-on-one discipleship for the pupils and after, school evangelism and discipleship targeting the entire community.

To the glory of God, the school that started with two teachers and three pupils now has six teachers and one hundred and eighteen pupils, despite a very serious competition as the school is surrounded by numbers of schools. To the glory of God, disciples have been raised among the pupils and in the community. God has been blessing His work with various testimonies like miraculous intervention of God in pupils' assimilation as soon as they join the school, God's miraculous intervention in the case of a sickle cell pupil, daughter of imam giving her life to Christ to mention but few.

We pray that God who has established Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School Asa-Dam will cause her to continue to fulfill her divine purpose in Jesus' name. Philippians 1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

Pastor & Mrs Adimula.

5. ANPS OKUTA ALA

Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School, Okutala started her operation about 19 years ago and it has been a city set on a hill which cannot be hidden.

- Evangelistic activities: The school has been a very powerful tool in preaching the gospel to the unsaved souls in the village and its environs. Souls have been converted to Christ, disciples are being raised among the pupils and the villagers, some of which the Lord is now using as great agents of change in their societies.
- Education: The school, despite being A-Not-For-Profit Christian institution has been rendering excellent educational service to the children of the rural dwellers by providing sound education, teaching them Godly virtues and as well improve their moral conducts. The school pupils are spread across 13 villages.
- Testimonies: Through the school, God has continually blessed us with divine opportunities to reach out to the pupils' parents and communities (including the hostile ones) and there has been enormous testimonies of salvation, healing, deliverance, provisions and so on. We also bless God for His Protection and safety over the pupils and teachers over the years.
- Impact: The school has been a great instrument of transformation in the area. On January 18, 2025, TKP commissioned a solar powered borehole water in the school to meet the needs of the communities as well as the pupils and missionary teachers on the field. This serves as a great relief to the people and also curb the problem of water scarcity previously faced by them. The villagers have also benefitted from the school through different outreaches organized by TKP, such as provision of quality medical services and distribution of welfare materials to meet their dire needs.

Pastor Lekan & Mrs Blessing Amole.

6. ANPS AKUFO:

A Blessing to the Akufo Community

ANPS Akufo has been a great blessing to the Akufo community and its neighboring villages. Through quality education, evangelism, and community service, the school has positively impacted the lives of many children and families.

Evangelistic Activities: ANPS Akufo is committed to spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ through house-to-house evangelism, one-on-one witnessing, discipleship, and family visitations. These efforts have led many pupils, parents, and community members to accept Christ, bringing positive transformation to Akufo and surrounding communities.

Quality Education: The school provides quality education in a Christian environment that promotes academic excellence, moral values, and godly character. Many parents appreciate the positive changes they have seen in their children's lives and willingly send their children to ANPS Akufo.

Testimonies of God's Faithfulness: This season, God showed His faithfulness during a period of insecurity that led to the temporary closure of the school. Many parents withdrew their children, but by God's grace, confidence was restored. Parents have begun bringing their children back to school, and many have promised to register more pupil's next term. To God alone be all the glory.

Impact on the Community: Through its educational and evangelistic ministry, ANPS Akufo continues to bring hope, spiritual growth, and lasting transformation to the Akufo community and its neighboring villages. God has truly used the school as a light to bless many lives.

Sis Elizabeth Osobu.

7. ANPS KIRIKUNPARU, KOSUBOSU.

Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School, Kirikunparu was established on May 19, 2025 as a cross-cultural TKP mission school. Our mandate is to expand God's Kingdom and transform Fulanis and Baribas through sound education and gospel outreach in communities with limited access to quality education. We currently operate a Primary School. By God's grace, land for a Secondary School has been provided, and we are trusting God for resources to develop it and disciple children to higher institutions.

Evangelistic Activities

Our core assignment is reaching pupils and parents through:

- Jesus Film shown in Fulani and Bariba languages
- Friday Pupils' Fellowship and one-on-one gospel conversations
- Monday community evangelism and Thursday follow-up visits.

Seven primary pupils have given their lives to Christ — Fulanis and Baribas. We also have a female Fulani convert in the host community. People from neighboring communities now come for prayer. We are gradually learning both languages to break communication barriers.

Academic Impact.

By God's grace, our pupils are making remarkable progress. Fulani pupils are also beginning to communicate in English. Notably, married adults in the community are requesting English classes, providing a new platform for outreach.

Testimonies

1. A boy who fell from a mango tree was restored to life through prayer.
2. On March 27, 2026, a storm blew off the school roof with my pregnant wife and daughter inside. God protected everyone.
3. On May 14, 2026, the reroofing was completed and classes resumed.
4. God provided a new motorcycle for ministry.

We give glory to God for His faithfulness. We also appreciate TKP leadership and all partners supporting the work on the field. We trust God for more grace, resources, and souls.

To God be all the glory.

Pastor Olu & Mrs Tobi Ayorinde.

8. ANPS KPANSHEGU

Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School (ANPS) has become a shining light in the Kpanshegu, majority Muslim community, Savanna Region, Ghana. Despite facing opposition from its inception, the missionary teachers remained steadfast, refusing to be discouraged. Instead, they continued to let the light of Christ shine through the children, impacting not only the community but also those beyond its borders.

The quality of education provided at ANPS soon became widely recognized. So remarkable was the school's standard that some parents from the city of Tamale began enrolling their children in the village school, choosing excellence over convenience.

One memorable highlight was the school's educational excursion to one of Tamale's renowned radio stations – Radio Savanna. The station staff were amazed by the pupils' confidence, eloquence, and academic excellence. At first, they assumed the children had come from one of the city's prestigious schools. They were astonished to discover that the pupils were from a remote village school in Kpanshegu.

Deeply impressed, the radio station later sent a delegation to visit ANPS and witness firsthand what was happening. Following their visit, they invited some of the pupils to produce and present a programme on Savannah Radio. As the children's voices echoed across the airwaves, the entire community rejoiced with pride and excitement, celebrating what God was accomplishing through their young ones.

The establishment of Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School is doing far more than providing quality education. It is transforming the lives of children, restoring hope to families, and demonstrating the love of Christ in practical ways. Through this ministry, hearts are being touched, communities are being uplifted, and a new generation is being equipped to become ambassadors of Christ and agents of positive change.

God's Faithfulness: TKP at 30

We give all glory to God for His unfailing faithfulness and abundant grace upon The Kingdom Project over the past 30 years. Through His mercy, the ministry has remained committed to demonstrating the love of Christ through practical outreach and evangelism.

One of the major platforms has been Touching Life at Christmas, through which countless individuals and families have received food, clothing, gifts, medical support, and the message of salvation during the Christmas season. This annual outreach has brought hope to the needy and opened many hearts to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In addition, the various units of The Kingdom Project have faithfully served communities through outreaches in schools, hospitals, rural communities, prisons, and other humanitarian and evangelistic programs. These ministries have provided spiritual encouragement, educational support, healthcare interventions, relief materials, discipleship, and prayer, leading many people to accept Christ and grow in their faith.

Over the last three decades, God has continually added souls to His Kingdom through these diverse outreaches. Many lives have been transformed, families restored, leaders raised, and believers equipped to become witnesses of Christ in their communities.

As we reflect on these 30 years of ministry, we acknowledge that every achievement has been by God's grace alone. We thank Him for the life of the International Director, every volunteer, partner, donor, and servant He has used in advancing His Kingdom. We remain confident that the Lord who has been faithful in the past will continue to expand His work, bringing many more into His Kingdom for His glory. Congratulations!

"Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Your name give glory, because of Your mercy, because of Your truth." — Psalm 115:1

OLAREWAJU O. PETER

Missionary Teacher,
ANPS Urban Missions,
Asa-Dam, Ilorin,
Kwara State, Nigeria.

At first, I thought it would be impossible to combine my profession with missionary work. However, after becoming part of The Kingdom Project, I discovered that it is truly possible.

Through this journey, I have learned what it means to be a committed Christian while faithfully fulfilling God's given assignment. Serving in the mission field has strengthened my faith and deepened my understanding of God's purpose for my life.

The love, encouragement, and unity we share have been a great source of strength and inspiration. This always gives me joy and fulfilment, serving GOD under the organization THE KINGDOM PROJECTS.

MR. EMMANUEL BUSAGRI

Associate Missionary, Ghana.

I am very grateful to God for bringing me in contact with The Kingdom Projects (TKP). It has been 13 years already, but it looks like yesterday!

For the past years working with TKP, I have seen souls won, disciples and Churches planted hitherto where there was none in the Northern part of Ghana. I have seen community development projects such as school built and bore holes drilled for villages.

At my own personal level, the impact of TKP on my spiritual life is tremendous.

In my early days in TKP, I learnt that "Whatever is not eternally useful is entirely useless." That has helped to shape my Christianity greatly and sanctions the kind of life choices I made.

In summary, TKP has helped me to have "A CORRECT PICTURE OF THE FUTURE." Thank you.

MONKPONG AUGUSTINE ULEME

Missionary Teacher,
ANPS Okuta-Ala,
Kwara state, Nigeria.

Indeed, the faithfulness of God in this journey of faith has been amazing and so mind-blowing. From how he ordered my steps from the beginning and the peace I have enjoyed even in the mist of ranging storms is worth giving praises.

Again, looking at some of the mission trips we often embark on and his divine presence that has always granted us safety even in nations like Nigeria, Benin Republic, where insecurity is a great concern, yet his faithfulness has been sure.

Looking up, down, sides, back and front, I think I can boldly say "it pays to obey and serve the lord"

Hallelujah.....

OYELOWO PETER OLAMILEKAN

ANPS Afon Field,

At the silent moment when I needed someone to show me which direction to follow to find faith and fulfilment, the Lord led me TKP through a missionary teacher in my church. I had always wanted to get along in the great commission even beyond the church walls, but never knew how and where to kick start.

After joining this commission, I discovered that without formal ministerial tittle, cassock or amplified sound instruments, we can get the message of the gospel across to the unsaved and as well raise disciples for Christ through different platforms that will not only raise soldiers for Christ, but also foster healthy society.

GOD IN THE MIDDLE OF IT ALL

When I joined missionary work, I didn't know it would change me this much.

I thought I was going to teach others about God, but God ended up teaching me about Himself. (Jeremiah 9:23-24)

Being a missionary has helped me build a stronger faith in God. It pushed me closer to Him because I had to depend on Him every single day. It also helped me develop a greater passion for soul-winning. (Hebrews 11:6; Matthew 28:19-20)

There were many challenges along the way. There were times of discouragement, lack, and loneliness. But through it all, I discovered that God was right in the middle of it. (Isaiah 43:2; Psalm 46:5)

And because He was there, I learned that ministry is not about being strong; it is about being faithful. (1 Corinthians 4:2; 2 Corinthians 12:9)

If you are thinking of joining missions, I want to encourage you: God will meet you there. He will grow your faith. He will draw you closer to Himself. And even when it is hard, you will find that the sweetest place to be is right in the center of God's will. (Psalm 16:11; Romans 12:2)

I pray for strength, joy, faith, protection, and fruitfulness for everyone who is already in the mission field. In Jesus' name, Amen. (Isaiah 41:10; Psalm 91:11; John 15:8)

My Gratitude to TKP Family

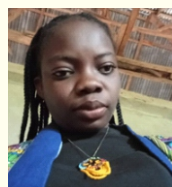

I am deeply grateful to God for making me a part of this wonderful family through whom my faith and trust in Him have been strengthened. The love, care, and support I have experienced in The Kingdom Projects (TKP) have taught me that family is not limited to biological relationships; God's family extends far beyond that.

One of my most unforgettable experiences happened in 2025 while I was serving on the mission field. Our administrator, Mrs. Salami, noticed that I needed medical attention and advised me to visit the Teaching Hospital in Tamale, Ghana. Unknown to me, my blood pressure had dropped dangerously low, yet I was still actively carrying out my missionary duties.

After the doctors conducted a Full Blood Count (FBC) test, they were shocked to discover that my blood level was only 2.5. I could hardly believe it myself because I had remained active on the field despite my condition. It was nothing short of God's sustaining grace. I was immediately admitted to the hospital, and TKP promptly arranged for the pints of blood that were needed for my treatment.

Throughout my hospitalization and the operation that followed, I never felt alone. Our leaders were constantly by my side, offering prayers, encouragement, and practical support. Even when my family arrived, they were amazed at the exceptional care and love that had been shown to me.

I want to use this opportunity to once again thank the Lord for directing my steps into His service under the umbrella of The Kingdom Projects. It has truly been a life-changing privilege, and I remain grateful to God for this family of faith.

TEMITOPE OLAPADE

Missionary Teacher,
ANPS Akufu,
Oyo state, Nigeria.

Serving in The Kingdom Project has been a deeply enriching and transformative experience. It has strengthened my relationship with God, deepened my commitment to prayer, and reinforced the values of humility, obedience, and faithful service.

One of the greatest privileges I have had during this assignment is the opportunity to reach out to young people and adults every evening after our school activities. These moments have provided a platform to share God's Word, encourage them in their faith, and point them to Christ.

Through these experiences, I have developed greater compassion for souls, and gained a deeper understanding of the importance of consistent and intentional evangelism.

MRS. LILIAN CHIOMA PETER-AKPAN

TKP Zonal Office, Ibadan.

One of my greatest privileges has been supporting my husband, Br. Peter Emmanuel Akpan, in the work of the ministry. I have had the opportunity to stand beside him in prayer, administration, hospitality, outreach, and the many unseen responsibilities. Together, we have witnessed God transform lives through evangelism, discipleship, community engagement, and missionary service.

I believe the next chapter belongs to ordinary believers who are willing to live with extraordinary purpose. The harvest is vast, and the world needs Christians who will serve not only from church platforms, but also from classrooms, hospitals, farms, businesses, offices, and homes.

The next 30 years begin with one surrendered life. Let yours be one of them.

MRS. OLUWATOYIN BAMIDELE

Missionary Teacher, ANPS Urban Missions, Asa-Dam, Ilorin, Kwara State, Nigeria.

Serving in TKP has been a life-changing privilege and one of the greatest blessings in my Christian journey. Through this ministry, I have experienced remarkable spiritual growth, developed a deeper passion for soul-winning, and learned the true meaning of servant leadership.

Here, I got a new perspective to ministry work. Every outreach, meeting, prayer session, and assignment has strengthened my faith and reminded me that every soul is precious to God. There have been moments of sacrifice, challenges, and fatigue, but each experience has taught me to depend more on God's grace and remain faithful to His calling.

Serving in TKP has also shaped my character. I have learned discipline, humility, perseverance, accountability, and the importance of putting God's work above personal convenience. These lessons have not only made me a better worker in the ministry but have also positively influenced my family life, career, and relationships.

I thank God for sustaining TKP these 30 years and for giving me the privilege of being part of this great commission. I appreciate the International Director, the leadership, and every co-worker whose dedication has contributed to the growth of this ministry.

Happy 30th Anniversary to TKP! To God alone be all the glory.

GIDEON PROMISE AGBOOLA

Volunteer Missionary Teacher, Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School (ANPS), Ilogun Orile, Ogun State, Nigeria.

Serving in THE KINGDOM PROJECT (TKP) as a volunteer missionary teacher has been a journey of faith, sacrifice, spiritual growth, and divine encounters. Although there are numerous experiences I could share, one lesson remains unforgettable: the Great Commission cannot be fulfilled by human strength or in the flesh.

While serving on the mission field, I encountered situations that revealed the reality of spiritual battles involved in bringing individuals out of the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of God. These experiences taught me that kingdom assignments require God's power, grace, and the support of faithful intercessors. Through the help of the One who called and sent us, and through the prayers of those God is raising in TKP such as the RBNT, who intercede as Jesus prayed for Peter we have witnessed victories that only God could give.

been an instrument in GOD'S hand to facilitate a divine connection between us the missionary-teachers and the parents of our pupils and this has opened doors for us a number of times to preach the gospel to these unbelievers.

We trust the LORD that the future of TKP is bright and beautiful.

MRS. OLUWATOSIN ROTIMI

TKP Missionary Teacher, ANPS Akufa, Oyo State, Nigeria.

Among other beautiful testimonies we have in Afon, Ambassadors Nursery and primary school has

MRS. ODUNOLA INELE

Missionary Teacher, ANPS Urban Missions, Asa-Dam, Ilorin, Kwara State, Nigeria.

Each day I walk into the classrooms, it always dawn on me that my responsibility as a disciple of CHRIST goes beyond just teaching, I am expected to transform lives. It is about transforming lives, one child at a time. Every school day presents me opportunities not only to teach academic subjects but also to share God's love, nurture godly character, and inspire hope in young hearts.

Serving as a Missionary Teacher with The Kingdom Projects has been one of the most rewarding seasons of my life. Through this ministry, I grew spiritually, developed a deeper understanding of servant leadership, and learned that true impact is measured not only by academic success but by transformed lives. The mentorship, prayers, and guidance I received from the leadership continue to shape my life and ministry.

In the mission field, I witnessed firsthand how TKP's vision is lived out through Christ-centered education, discipleship, and compassionate service. It has been a privilege to contribute in my own little way to raising children who are academically equipped, grounded spiritually, and prepared to influence their communities for Christ.

As TKP celebrates 30 years of God's faithfulness, I thank God for the privilege of being a part of this vision. My prayer is that the ministry will continue to raise generations of Christ-like leaders and expand its impact across many more communities.

OLUWATOBI AWONUGA

Missionary Teacher, ANPS Urban Missions, Asa-Dam, Ilorin, Kwara State, Nigeria.

Following the receipt of my appointment as a missionary teacher to serve under TKP, an orientation was organized for us. Among many things, I developed interest in reading from that moment.

I have served in two fields—rural and urban—and the love I received from the brethren, especially my field leaders, is amazing. The approach to teaching in TKP is unique. The focus and the emphasis is JESUS. Monday evangelism within our school community and Friday Teachers' Fellowship have also built me and still building me.

The Monthly ABC, outreaches within and outside Nigeria, many personalized assignments, Friday Mission Prayer Meetings have also increased my knowledge of the unreached people groups. TKP has truly been a great training ground for me. I am grateful to God for the opportunity to serve Happy 30th Anniversary, TKP!

My personal Experience while serving in the kingdom project

It is a great thing to be numbered among the lord's army. and there's no other better place to be than to serve in God's vineyard. when I remember how the lord ordered my steps here to tkp, I give him thanks.

though it has not been all on the bed of roses, but God has been exceedingly faithful in every situation, and circumstances. I am glad I am not somewhere else but here in tkp. and I know his grace will always be sufficient in all areas.

And I also thank God for the grace that has backed this commission for the past three decades, I also pray that the good lord that has kept this vision running will sustain it till Jesus return and continue to make tkp a blessing to the nations of the earth in Jesus name amen hallelujah.....

MRS. MARY ABIOYE
TKP Missionary Teacher
ANPS Kirikunparu, Baruten LGA,
Kwara State, Nigeria.

Teaching at Ambassador Nursery and Primary School, one of The Kingdom Project schools, was a defining experience.

Every morning began with prayers, and the team worked together like the early church. Devoted, together, family.

At ANPS, the lesson was clear: ministry isn't limited to the altar. It happens in the classroom too.

Consistency in prayer matters.

And it is God's grace, not only human effort, that makes our labour count.

I also understood this truth: we don't have to travel the world to reach nations. We can pray for them right from where we are. That's the Great Commission.

TKP also taught me that even where I am, I can go out to preach and pray in my vicinity.

The foundation remains.

TKP teaches us to trust God over our own strength.

Today, that same value is passed to pupils: to seek God first and to give their best in class.

And through the teachers' fellowship and at TKP headquarters, I saw how God continues to build His people and advance His Kingdom.

TKP has been such a blessing to me personally, and to many.

I pray God keeps blessing The Kingdom Projects.

Happy Anniversary

PASTOR MOSES LAMBON
Office Manager,
TKP Ghana Office

The word of the Lord came to Jonah, son of Amittai, saying, "Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me." But Jonah ran away from the Lord and headed for Tarshish (Jonah 1:1-3, NIV). For many years, this was my story. For about fifteen years, I carried a burden in my heart to serve the Lord and do His work, but I kept putting it aside and pursued a career in banking. Although I held positions and earned a salary, I did not experience true fulfilment or happiness in my workplace.

My life changed when I came in contact with TKP, Ghana, through the 2021 TLC edition. During the Brethren Forum, I responded to the call for missionaries, and since then, my life has never been the same. I can confidently say that I have found joy and fulfilment in serving the Lord.

Since joining TKP, Ghana, as a missionary in 2022, I have served as a missionary teacher. I have also served as Planning and Logistics Manager and I am presently serving as the TKP Ghana Office Manager.

In my assignments, I have led advance teams to TLC and MEE outreach communities in Ghana.

In 2022, I led an advance team from Ghana to Liberia for missions. In 2025, I was privileged to serve on the advance team for the Festival of Mercy (FM) to Sierra Leone. These efforts have contributed to successful outreaches where lives have been transformed, souls have been won, and churches have been planted.

Today, I am grateful to God for calling me into missions. What I once resisted has become my greatest joy. I am thankful to TKP, Ghana, for giving me the opportunity to serve God and be part of His mission to reach the nations. To God alone be all the glory.

RUTH ITUNUOLUWA DAVID
TKP Associate Missionary.

Working with The Kingdom Project for the past three years has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. It has been a place of transformation, learning, and purpose.

One of the greatest lessons I have learned is the importance of spiritual growth. Through regular Bible study, prayers, mentorship, and practical teachings, I have developed a deeper relationship with God. I have learned to trust Him in every season, to serve with humility, and to live a life that reflects Christian values. This spiritual foundation has strengthened my character, improved my decision-making, and given me a clearer understanding of my purpose.

Finally, I sincerely appreciate The Kingdom Project for investing in my spiritual, personal, and financial development over the past three years. I pray TKP will continue to go from strength to strength in Jesus name Amen.

HUNGRY FOR GOD

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I am pleased to share this testimony of God's faithfulness in our mission field Tanakpe. During MEE 2025 Easter Sunday, a woman named Mrs. ADIJAT Mohamed came to church seeking prayers for a safe delivery. She was noticed by our international director Pastor Sola Adebayo as she was outside peeping through the window. She was invited inside and was prayed for that day. At that time, she was pregnant and trusting God for His protection over her and her unborn child. She was then handed over to me to take over from there for follow-up and discipleship. Glory to God, she delivered safely the following month, in May 2025. We give all praise to the Lord for His sustaining hand upon her life. Since then, we have been doing discipleship with her. She has a hunger to grow in the Word and to know Christ more. On a Sunday in October 2025, she returned to church to testify and to appreciate God for what He has done for her and her baby. During the service, the pastor prayed for the child and dedicated the child to the Lord. Mrs. Mohamed genuinely desires to continue attending church and growing in faith. However, her husband has not yet given her permission to do so. We are praying that God will touch his heart and open the way for her to fellowship freely with us. We thank God for what He has started in her life. We believe that He who began a good work in her will bring it to completion. "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." Psalm 23:1

Beyond the Gifts: The Power of God's Word.

- A Story of TLC Impact from TLC Port Harcourt Center 1

Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) has always been a wonderful and life-transforming experience. Every year, we witness the joy it brings to communities. Smiles light up the faces of men, women, and children, and the overwhelming turnout each year is a clear testimony to the impact God is making through this outreach. Through TLC, countless lives have been touched and transformed as we not only meet practical needs but also share the life-changing message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I want to sincerely thank God for His faithfulness and appreciate God's servant, Pastor Olusola Adebayo, for his obedience to God's vision and for allowing the Lord to use him to birth and sustain this impactful ministry.

One of the communities we had the privilege of reaching in Port Harcourt left a lasting impression on us. Among those who attended was a mother who expressed deep gratitude. Surprisingly, she said that beyond the gifts she received, what touched her heart the most was the Word of God she heard that day. Her testimony reminded us that while material gifts may meet temporary needs, the Gospel brings eternal transformation. It is truly a privilege to be part of Touching Lives at Christmas and to witness God changing lives through this vision.

Congratulations to The Kingdom Projects (TKP) on 30 years of God's faithfulness and impact. As we celebrate this milestone and embrace this new season, my prayer is that God will grant even greater grace, strength, and fruitfulness for the years ahead.

Praise the Lord! Hallelujah!

Grace & the Ego of Man

As we celebrate the 30th anniversary of The Kingdom Projects, a thought occurs to me about the grace of God that started it all and how we must appreciate God for His grace. In doing this, we might benefit from considering how the ego of man struggles with the grace of God. In the Bible, grace means undeserved favor, a free gift from God, and divine help for people who do not earn it. It is what saved us, what opens to us the door of ministry, and what empowers us to serve God acceptably. It alone produces the results of ministry, such as we have seen in TKP these 30 years. It is the opposite of getting what you work for or deserve. Instead, it is God showing love and kindness to us anyway. It means you cannot work for grace, you cannot earn it; you cannot merit it. It is free, regardless of your spiritual condition (Rom.5:8; 2Cor.5:19; see also Rom.5:20-21). Actually, we can neither increase it nor reduce it, because it is a sovereign act of God, totally independent of man's action. Maybe that is why it tends to antagonize those who trust in their status and think they have worked hard or trained hard to earn their position with God, having achieved better, or having been better trained, than others, like scoring high marks in an examination. So, when others who are less deserving are offered free passage, it seems to offend their sense of justice. It is like the Pharisee who felt better than the tax collector, when they were both praying (Lk.18:9-14). It is like the early workers who were resentful for being paid the same as those who came later (Matt.20:1-16). It is like the elder brother of the Prodigal Son who was angry because he was so faithful to his father while his younger brother was so wasteful, yet the father celebrated the younger brother when the latter returned (Lk.15:25-32). To God alone belongs the glory for all that He has done.

"From Two Days to Five Converts: God's Mercy in Kosubosu"

How TLC Started in Kosubosu

The Kosubosu TLC Center started just last year, and mobilization began only a couple of days before TLC Day. As the Lord gave the burden to the International Director of TKP that TLC 2025 should be observed in Kosubosu, we had only two days to mobilize, and the Lord showed His mercy in the provision of men and finances.

Even though we were, at that time, new in Kosubosu, and many of the participants had already planned their gave us 5 converts

barrier. ”

Christmas Day celebrations with their families before we reached out to them about the outreach, yet 12 people registered and came for the outreach, which held in the Fulani community that hosts our school, and God gave us 5 converts despite the language barrier.

We praise God for the success within the limited timeframe, and we appreciate our father, the Int'l Director.

Glory be to God!

He Restores Destinies:

A TLC Ibadan East Testimony

We give all glory, honour, and adoration to God for the wonderful things He continues to do through the Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) outreach in Ibadan East Centre.

During our village outreach on 25th December, 2024, the Lord divinely led our team to a village where we met a young girl of about 18 years old. As we shared the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ with her, she joyfully accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Saviour. While interacting with her, she opened up about a painful situation she had been facing. She was under intense pressure from her family to marry a man in his fifties. The man, who already had two or three wives, had won the favour of her family through financial gifts and material support, which greatly influenced their decision. He had rented an apartment for her and lavished her with gifts in an attempt to win her over. However, deep in her heart, she was not willing to go into the marriage and longed for a way out of the situation.

By the grace of God, we counselled her with the Word of God and encouraged her not to continue on that path. Through consistent follow-up, we also engaged her parents, patiently explaining the emotional, spiritual, and lifelong consequences of forcing their daughter into such a marriage. At the initial stage, the matter became so serious that the headquarters in Ilorin was consulted in conjunction with the TKP Oyo State Office, and preparations were being made to pursue the matter through legal intervention if necessary. However, before that became necessary, God intervened mightily. Through His divine orchestration, the young lady was relocated to a safer environment, thereby disconnecting her completely from the man and bringing an end to the proposed marriage.

Although there were periods when communication was difficult, we remained committed to praying for her and following up as much as possible. Beyond spiritual support, the brethren in Ibadan East Centre demonstrated Christ's love in practical ways. Some members voluntarily took it upon themselves to tutor her in various subjects in preparation for her NECO examination and the UTME. A member of the centre personally trained her in basic computer operations to equip her with the skills needed to confidently undertake the computer-based UTME examination. The Lord also provided for her educational needs through the generosity of His people. The centre gave financial support towards her examination registrations, while one of the members of the TLC Planning Committee donated several textbooks to aid her studies and preparation.

Today, we rejoice in what God has done in her life. She successfully registered for and passed her NECO examination, sat for the 2026 UTME, scored 185, and is currently processing admission into Adeyemi Federal University of Education, Ondo, to study English Language.

This testimony is a clear reminder that the gospel of Jesus Christ does far more than save souls—it restores destinies, rescues the vulnerable, brings hope to the hopeless, and transforms lives. It also demonstrates the power of genuine Christian love, expressed not only through evangelism but also through discipleship, practical care, sacrificial giving, and unwavering commitment to the wellbeing of those God brings our way. We return all the glory to God for this remarkable testimony and for using TLC as a channel of blessing, restoration, and hope.

Indeed, God is doing wonders through Touching Lives at Christmas, and we pray that many more lives will continue to experience His saving grace and transforming power.

To God alone be all the glory!

AMBASSADORS MEDICAL MISSIONS (AMM)

Hallelujah! Thirty years of co-labouring with Jesus as TKP! Glory, praise and thanksgiving to God for the great things He has done!

Three decades of service in the Lord's vineyard is an uncommon and great privilege, as well as a manifestation of divine mercy and grace. Who is sufficient for these things, except the Lord Himself!

God, in His wisdom, added AMM to the growing, flourishing arms of TKP, for the expansion of His kingdom, the acceleration of the work of the great commission and widening of the opportunities for many to partake, particularly health professionals.

Medicine as a profession is a ministry – a platform God gives as He wills to health professionals to use for the expansion of His kingdom. For you are His workmanship, created, equipped with knowledge (medical science, facts and skills, spiritual truth of God and man), chosen and anointed (by/with the Holy Spirit) for His glory. Eph.2:10 Must such a huge divine investment be allowed to waste? Can such invaluable resources be allowed to lie fallow?

You and I have the rare privilege of people coming to us for help, albeit physical and probably mental and social, but as a Christian health professional, you also have spiritual answers to what plagues men. Doors of lives and peoples/nations that would ordinarily remain closed to the gospel are opened to medical personnel. Even strong, powerful and influential persons open up to you as a health professional. But remember, medicine in the most advanced state still has limits, limitations and impossibilities. But with God, all things are possible. What God desires for man is wholeness – sound spirit, soul and body. IThess. 5:23 Healing is good, good health is better but salvation/wholeness is the best. That was the full package of the ministry of Jesus. Even after his leprosy was healed, Jesus still pronounced wholeness to the “grateful healed leper”. He was healed and saved by faith. Luk.17:19 (KJV, MSG)

As health professionals, we should therefore be channels through which God bring wholeness to the sick and seemingly healthy. Our labour/service should be targeted at the totality of man as we maximise every privilege of deploying medicine as a ministry platform.

God has granted me many of such privileges as He will still continue to do for us, and one of such veritable opportunities is my connection with TKP over 20 years ago. Ample windows for 'groaning, giving and going' have been opened to me and many alike, and thank God for His grace to maximise them.

Are you a health/medical professional? Are you in Christ? If yes, then remember, He has equipped you, engraced you, empowered you and enlisted you as part of His last day “medical corps”. Maximize these divine investments. Join the band of medics who walk in the footsteps of Jesus, pursuing wholeness of men for the glory of God. Take your space in this “Christian Medical Corps” as we move on to the great future with Christ.

Joyous celebration!

Shalom!!!

My Encounter, Experience, and Commendation of the Ambassador Medical Mission Council

My encounter with the Ambassador Medical Mission Council (AMMC), an arm of The Kingdom Projects, was both memorable and deeply inspiring. From the moment I became part of the mission, I was struck by the warmth, professionalism, dedication, and genuine compassion that characterized every aspect of the outreach.

The experience gave me a firsthand appreciation of what true humanitarian and kingdom service looks like. I witnessed dedicated medical professionals and volunteers working tirelessly to provide quality healthcare to people from different walks of life, many of whom had limited access to essential medical services. Beyond medical consultations and treatment, the team listened with empathy, offered encouragement, and treated every individual with dignity, respect, and compassion.

What impressed me most was the spirit of unity and selfless service that permeated the entire mission. Every member of the team carried out their responsibilities with excellence, driven not by personal recognition or reward, but by a sincere desire to improve lives, touch souls, and bring hope to those in need. The careful planning, effective coordination, and genuine concern shown toward each beneficiary reflected the Council's commitment to making a meaningful and lasting difference.

This experience deepened my appreciation of the profound impact that compassionate healthcare and community service can have on individuals and society. It also reminded me that healing extends beyond medicine. It encompasses kindness, encouragement, salvation of souls, bringing back the backslidden, divine healing for the penitent, and the assurance that every person is seen, valued, loved, and cared for.

TOUCHING LIVES @ CHRISTMAS Outreach

	Date: 25th December, 2026 Where: Wherever the unsaved and the unreached are found, in and around our cities Since 2001, tens of thousands of mission enthusiasts under the umbrella of TKP have trooped out every Christmas Day to demonstrate agape love in villages, slums, parks, recreation centres, hospitals, prisons, correctional centres and other places where unsaved souls can be found in and around our cities. www.tkpmission.org /// www.touchinglivesatchristmas.com

I wholeheartedly commend the Ambassador Medical Mission Council for its outstanding work and unwavering commitment to service. As an arm of The Kingdom Projects, the Council has demonstrated that healthcare can be a powerful expression of love, compassion, faith, and social responsibility. Its work goes beyond meeting physical needs; it creates opportunities to touch lives, restore hope, and minister to the whole person.

I encourage individuals, organizations, and well-meaning members of society to support this noble initiative so that its life-changing impact can reach even more communities and touch the lives of more young people, men, and women.

I am truly grateful for the opportunity to have witnessed and experienced this inspiring mission. I commend every member and volunteer who contributes to its work, and I look forward to seeing the Ambassador Medical Mission Council reach more people and make a greater impact in the years ahead.

The Youth through Missions in African Campuses - MAC.

In the year 2002, TKP Int'l Director embarked on an extensive 30-day journey from Nigeria through Togo, Niger, Burkina Faso, Mali to Senegal. He surveyed some selected campuses in West Africa. His findings revealed the state of the harvest in the tertiary institution campuses (many campuses exist without a single campus fellowship). The need to reach campus intellects, raise disciples among them and mobilize them for the great commission was obvious. This burden led to the creation of Missions in West Africa Campuses, a ministry arm of The Kingdom Projects - TKP. This later metamorphosed to Missions in African Campuses - MAC with an expanded vision to the rest of Africa.

Since its establishment, MAC has been operating through the following strategies: Global Impact Summit - GIS, From Campus to The World Seminar - FCTW, Campus Evangelism and Mission Secretaries Summit - CEMSS, Festival of Mercy - FM, Campus - Christian News Network (CNN), TKP Network and a few others.

Global Impact Summit (GIS) is a missions mobilization conference that gathers young minds from campuses, churches, and youth organizations. It has been held periodically since 2006. The maiden edition, "Reshaping Africa with the Gospel" (2006), left a lasting impact still referenced by many today. The second edition (2009) emphasized that the battle for the soul of Africa rests on young men and women in Christ's Kingdom, and that as conquerors through God, they are the "Hope for Africa." The third edition, "Prepared for the Master's Use" (2012), was aimed at raising a missions-minded generation of youth and Church leaders, and recruiting a selfless, heaven-minded army to conquer the Goliaths of their generation. The fourth edition, "Faith to Face the Future" (2016), coincided with TKP's 20th Anniversary. The fifth edition, with the theme, "Focus," was held in March 2026 in Uganda, anchored by the TKP Regional Office in East Africa.

Through GIS, the Lord has raised many missionaries who remain standing and serving Him in different parts of the world today, with a significant number of TKP missionaries and associate missionaries having joined the organization through this platform.

Festival of Mercy (FM) is a campus outreach initiative targeting universities where the presence of God is little known or largely absent. Since its inception, the outreach has been held in the following

Year	Location	Focus
2009	University of Parakou, Benin Republic	The Baruba Students
2010	University of Kara, Togo	The Kabiye Students
2011	University for Development Studies & Tamale Polytechnic, Tamale, Northern Ghana	The Dagomba Students
2013	University of Ouagadougou (and rural unreached communities), Burkina Faso	The Moosi Students
2015	Abdou Moumouni University, Niamey (and rural unreached communities), Niger Republic	The Songhai Students
2025	Ernest Bai Koroma University of Science and Technology (EBKUST), Makeni (and rural unreached communities), Sierra Leone	The Temne

FM has become a springboard for further mission engagement in host countries. Each edition has led to the launch of long-term missions work in each country.

TKP has taken From Campus to The World Seminar, a mission awareness and mobilization seminar, to several campuses across West Africa, East Africa and Central Africa. Each mobilization office of TKP organizes this seminar. Several students have been exposed to missions, and many have taken their missions engagement to the level of becoming missionaries, mission intercessors and mission financiers.

What looks like a string of strategies is, in fact, a prophecy unfolding: 'So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army' (Ezekiel 37:10). The manifestation of the prophecy is to the degree of our faith and action. Faith that God can raise an Exceedingly Great Army must be backed up with action - going to mobilize, recruit, train and deploy the army. This army is predominantly young people on tertiary institution campuses. Beloved, join us to mobilize them!

My TKP Story: God Is Everywhere

When I was preparing to move from Nigeria to the UK, one of my greatest fears was losing my fire and love for God. I had heard many stories suggesting that life abroad could become all about work, money and survival—and that it might be difficult to find people who were passionate about God and His kingdom.

But my experience has been beautifully different. Through one of my senior colleagues, Dr Taiwo, I was introduced to The Kingdom Projects (TKP), and I was deeply encouraged to discover a missionary community actively serving God right here in the UK.

The monthly prayer meetings, Mercy Feast, Touching Lives at Christmas, and many other programmes and outreaches have been inspiring and eye-opening. They have reminded me that God is everywhere, and He is still using people in every part of the world. He is simply looking for willing vessels.

TKP has also taught me that our location does not determine what we can do for God; what matters is the condition and willingness of our hearts. Seeing leaders such as Dr Taiwo faithfully continue the work of the ministry here in the UK has been a great source of inspiration to me.

As TKP celebrates 30 years, I celebrate with this remarkable mission and give thanks to God for the many lives it has touched. My prayer is that many more people will encounter the love, purpose and impact of this great ministry in the years ahead.

Happy 30th anniversary, TKP! May the work continue to flourish, and may more lives be touched for God's glory.

ONE MAN'S OBEDIENCE, A MINISTRY FOR MANY

My TKP/TLC Story

The mustard seed is growing and is fast becoming a big tree which has served as a place of refuge for me and many others alike. “And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land” (Isaiah 32vs 2). Having being on this train since 2011 which was my first encounter with The Kingdom Projects via TLC as a random participant, fast forward to being a coordinator of the same TLC from 2015 till date. All I can do is to thank God for this connection to TKP and the obedience of one man that has yielded a ministry for many, of which I am one.

What more can I say for time and space would fail me to recount the exposure, experience and graces I have received and still receiving, of souls won for the Lord, lives that have been touched for Christ, the healing and deliverances many people have received in the process of Touching Lives at Christmas and the grace of serving as a joint to connect other people to their own ministry as well in this same global ministry.

As we continue the work here in Canada, serving as the assistant national coordinator for TKP, we look forward to a more a fulfilling future in Christ Jesus, the Author and the Finisher of our faith, that through His grace we might drive forward the great mandate of teaching all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost and teaching them to observe all the words of the Lord and He has said He will be with us unto the end of the world. (Matthew 28 vs 19-20, paraphrased)

Finally, I pray for the Director of the TKP and the entire leadership team that the same grace they have enjoyed for the past 30years will always be there, fresh and effective for many decades to come and may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of us and those that will join this train in the years to come in Jesus’ name. Amen

Goodwill Message on 30th Anniversary Celebration of The Kingdom Project - August 22nd 2026

It is with great joy and gratitude to the Lord of the harvest that I celebrate with the International Director, the entire Leadership team, Missionaries and Associates of The Kingdom Projects on this significant event of 30 fruitful and impactful years of Frontier Missions thrust within and outside Nigeria. I salute the Vision of the leadership which has set the road map for the Mission thrust of TKP and especially the courage and commitment of those who within these 30 years have staked their lives and resources to see the Gospel reach the unreached, least reached and the underserved peoples of our World. I sincerely commend those who have labored through the years to keep the vision of TKP ministry alive.

As we rejoice with you at this celebration of His faithfulness in extending the good news of the kingdom by word and deed across the world of the unreached where you are active,

I would like to remind you that there are yet many lands to conquer and TKP shares in the obligation to reach the remaining un-reached and unengaged peoples of our country, continent and beyond with the good news of Jesus Christ. While appreciating your space in the collective effort of the Missions movement in Nigeria, I wish to encourage greater networking efforts on your part to synergize and finish the remaining task. May God's voice come clear to you at this Anniversary as you consider the theme of The Exceeding Great Army (Celebrating the Faithfulness of God). Happy Anniversary!

Yours for His Glory Among All Peoples,

Some Specific Breakthroughs TLC Has Achieved in 25 Years

By Temitope Ayodele:- Coordinator, TLC Africa

Over its 25-year journey, Touching Lives at Christmas has moved from a single act of obedience to a movement with measurable, lasting impact.

Touching Lives at Christmas has moved from a single act of into a church-planting drive that simplifies missions for the Church.

Fostering Partnership

Beyond adopting outreach locations, local churches have become active partners in making TLC happen. Many congregations release their own members to serve as outreach volunteers on Christmas Day, giving their time and energy to reach the unreached. Others support with vehicles, providing transportation for teams, food, and welfare materials into villages, slums, and correctional centers that would otherwise be difficult to reach. Further churches support with financial and material resources, from funding for logistics to gifts and welfare items distributed on the outreach field. Through these partnerships, TLC has grown from a TKP project into a shared mission carried jointly by the wider Body of Christ.

From 80 to Nearly 10,000

TLC began in 2001 in Ilorin, Kwara State, with just 80 participants. By its 25th edition, that number had grown to 9,848 participants across 232 centers. What started in one Nigerian city now spans 22 countries across Africa, Europe, North America, and Australia, with 18 African nations reached, South Sudan being the most recent addition.

Souls Won, Communities Reached

In its 25th edition alone, TLC recorded 10,296 converts, reaching 518 outreach locations, including 457 villages and 30 intracity outreaches. This reach extended into places such as 11 hospitals, 9 correctional centers, 6 orphanages, a remand home, an IDP camp, 2 slums, and a leprosarium.

Beyond the Outreach Day: Infrastructure That Outlasts the Outreach

TLC's breakthroughs go beyond the outreach day. TKP has followed up converts by drilling boreholes, establishing schools and health centers in communities where they are most needed, a deliberate strategy to keep making impact long after the outreach.

Churches Planted, Denominations Mobilized

Several church denominations have formally adopted TLC outreach locations as their own mission field, with churches planted through TLC now bearing the name of the adopting denomination. This has turned a single outreach

A Discovery Ground for Calling

Many believers who joined TLC unsure of their place in ministry have, through the outreach experience, discovered a calling that has since shaped the direction of their Christian life, some going on to full-time missions themselves, others as tentmaking missionaries, mission intercessors, and mission financiers.

Unity Across Denominational Lines

TLC has quietly become an instrument of unity within the wider Body of Christ, with believers from different denominations working together, projecting Jesus rather than the name of their denomination.

A Movement Still Advancing

From 80 believers in one Nigerian city to nearly ten thousand across four continents, from a single outreach to boreholes, schools, clinics, planted churches, and committed church partners, TLC's breakthroughs over 25 years tell one story: an exceedingly great army, standing to its feet and advancing until the whole earth is filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord.

TKP/TLC - Truly International:

Good Tidings To All People Through All People

By David OlaOluwa Afolabi (TKP/TLC UK)

According to the Scriptures, God's end-time agenda is to pass the good news of the coming of Jesus Christ as Saviour of the world across to all people through all people (Matthew 24:14). Indeed, this divine message was designed to bring great joy and peace to individuals regardless of their location, race, nationality, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, educational background, occupation, etc (Luke 2:10). It is also noteworthy that the Almighty God is using people from different nationalities and backgrounds to bring the good news to people of all nationalities and backgrounds. Simply put, the gospel has been sent to all people through all people in amazingly creative ways. Evidently, Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) outreach organized by The Kingdom Projects (TKP) Ministry is one of those ways.

Since its inception in 2001, the TLC outreach initiative has proven to be, not just a good idea, but a God-inspired strategy for reaching unreached people with the gospel through His people in these last days. By the grace of God, I became a TLC stakeholder in 2003, and over the years we have seen the LORD spreading the vision across the continent of Africa and beyond, making TLC truly international. Not only has the Lord of the harvest been saving many souls from an increasing number of countries through TLC, He has also been raising faithful labourers from more of the world. This is the LORD's doing, it is marvelous in our eyes (Psalms 118:23). Hallelujah!

Permit me to share the amazing experience of our young TLC centre which I believe illustrates the international dimension of TKP/TLC. When TLC outreach was held for the first time in the city of Norwich, United Kingdom in 2024, most of the participants were Nigerians (11 out of 13) with 2 persons from Kenya. At that time, the LORD enabled us to reach out to the residents and staff of an old peoples' home in a nearby village. However, to the glory of God, by the next edition (TLC 2025) our team became composed of 32 brethren from 8 different countries across 5 continents - Nigeria, Ghana, Kenya, Zimbabwe, India, England, Canada, and Australia. That Christmas day, these beloved people of God from different nations preached the gospel to equally diverse groups of people in 4 care homes, a Community Centre, and the Norwich prison with great joy and unity of spirit. It was not until I began compiling the outreach report as centre coordinator that it dawned on me afresh that the Almighty God had once again demonstrated through TLC that the gospel is indeed good tidings to all people through all people. To Him alone be all the glory!

THE JOY IS INESTIMABLE; THE EXPERIENCE HAS BEEN WORTHWHILE AND FULFILLING.

My earliest knowledge about TKP was around 2005 when I heard about a Christian Missionary clinic being established at Elebu village in Moro Local Govt Area of Kwara State. I didn't know by who. TKP activities had always been announced in our church and I later had the opportunity of meeting with Evangelist Olusola. Adebayo since we are both members of Chapel of Redemption, UMCA. I got more involved in TKP following the invitation to join the Ambassador Medical Mission Council in February 2011.

That invitation started a new phase in my Christian journey. It gave me the opportunity to preach the gospel through my profession. Rather than waiting in my office for patients, I met them in their own environment giving me insight of their health status and other challenges.

My association with TKP also accorded me the privilege to participate in seminars for the 'RETIRED BUT NOT TIRED' and contributing to publications that can encourage them to enjoy good health during their sunset.

I have also seen the power of prayers in advancing the kingdom of God in TKP. The power of prayer making the impossible possible, spreading the gospel beyond frontiers and supplying resources to meet needs.

The AMM is one the fourteen arms of TKP. My involvement with the AMMC gives me opportunity to rub minds with other medical personnel to actualize TKP vision....."To reach the nations with the gospel through our vocations". This we do by organizing medical outreaches in some cities within and outside Nigeria. The outreaches involve checking the health status and treatment, , health education, sharing the gospel and distribution of clothes donated by TKP members.

The joy is inestimable; the experience has been worthwhile and fulfilling.

I wish TKP and its Director happy 30th anniversary and more advancement of God's Kingdom.

DR. B.O. AWESU.
Member, AMM Council

I got Connected WITH TKP IN 1999

Ambassador Medical Mission (AMM), an arm of the Kingdom Project (TKP) is a great place to be as a health care professional. This provides a platform for us as health professionals to use our skill as a tool to bring men to Christ and to demonstrate the love and compassion of Christ to them.

I came in contact with TKP as a young student Nurse in the late nineteen nineties and eventually became a member in the early Two thousand, ever since then the vision has been getting brighter and brighter. It was a sunny afternoon, a neatly dressed beautiful woman walked into my room in the Nursing school hostel with her baby strapped to her back, and also with a message that made a lasting impact, though just a young student Nurse. This simple show of commitment and passion for what she believes in drew my attention to the message she brought and though not readily privilege to join the mission workforce then, I had it in mind that this course deserve my own commitment also. This God sent missionary woman is Mrs ADEBAYO, Funmilayo.

Then time went on after graduating from school, I visited the headquarters (TKP Head office), then still in Zulu Gambari way, Ilorin. I was received by the Director; the reception was top notch, warm and promising as if he had known me for ages. He took time to explain the Programmes of TKP. I gave so many excuses why I cannot fit in to some of the activities, but he insisted that I should start somewhere; this little encouragement has strengthened my faith that with God all things are possible and improved my visibility to the possibility of tent making missions.

Over two decades now, TKP, AMM has given me opportunities to use my skill to demonstrate the love of God to unsaved souls in various locations. At first, through TLC, which is an annual event during Christmas period. Secondly, in mobilization of partners and health professionals for mission work which serves as an avenue to enlist more men into the mission work.

MRS. OPEYEMI KOLAWOLE
Secretary, AMM Council

More so, I have been opportune to serve as one of the board members in the AMM. The board members are saddled with the responsibility of carrying out various assignments ranging from overseeing regular medical outreaches carried out in different locations and supervising the activities of a Medical center that uses medicine to reach out to the unsaved souls, predominantly (Fulanis) in a rural setting, which has made it possible to preach the gospel to them in a more friendly manner. And also prays regularly to see Christ enthroned among the nations through the tool of health care profession.

Indeed, it is a blessing being a health care provider and having a platform to operate from through the TKP, AMM in reaching the world for Christ. Colosians 3:23 says "Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord and not unto men". I therefore encourage all professionals in any field to join this noble task, knowingly well that your labour shall be greatly rewarded Colossians 3:24.

We have eight elementary schools in Nigeria and Northern Ghana. The unreached peoples and nations are begging us for more and for Secondary schools. Join us with your talents and your resources.

FROM A CALL TO SERVE to a JOURNEY OF IMPACT MY TKP STORY

Sometimes, what looks like a simple act of obedience can become the beginning of a beautiful life story. My journey with The Kingdom Project (TKP) began shortly after I gained admission into Nursing School in 2010. What started as an opportunity to serve has, over the years, become a significant part of my Christian journey, professional growth, and passion for serving humanity.

One TKP programme that has remained particularly dear to my heart is Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC). Every December 25th, we leave our comfort zones to visit rural communities, preach the Gospel, and provide free medical services to people with little or no access to healthcare. I have had the privilege of participating in TLC from 2010 until today.

In 2013, shortly before my final nursing examination, Bro. Tope Ayodele came to our fellowship and shared about Ambassador Medical Hospital in Elebu, Kwara State, a mission hospital established by TKP because of the community's limited access to healthcare. As he spoke about the need for volunteer health workers, I felt a strong prompting from the Holy Spirit to serve there after graduation before taking up any personal employment.

I obeyed.

In January 2014, shortly after completing my nursing training, I went to Elebu and spent almost four months serving as a volunteer. Those months became one of the most memorable seasons of my life. I experienced the joy of serving God through my profession, caring for people, learning from the community, and seeing firsthand how healthcare can become a powerful expression of God's love. I remain deeply grateful for the support I received from the

MRS OLUSOLA BLESSING TITILAYO (NEE AYATOR)
Associate Missionary, TKP.

TKP International Director, Pastor Sola Adebayo, during that period.

Looking back, I can boldly say that God honoured that step of obedience. After returning to my family, my journey began to move forward in remarkable ways. God opened doors for me and advanced my career and life beyond what I could have imagined. Indeed, it has been from glory to glory.

After getting married and relocating to Osogbo, Osun State, in 2019, my husband and I joined the TKP branch there. Since then, we have had the privilege of coordinating the TLC Medical Team, continuing the same vision of reaching communities with the Gospel and compassionate healthcare.

As TKP celebrates 30 years, my heart is filled with gratitude. I am grateful for the privilege of being part of this Kingdom assignment for over 15 years and for the many lives God has allowed me to touch through it. TKP taught me that our profession can be more than a career—it can be a ministry; and that one sincere “yes” to God can become the beginning of a lifetime of impact.

I am thankful for the journey, grateful for the privilege to serve, and excited about the greater things God will accomplish through TKP in the years ahead.

To God alone be all the glory!

MY JOURNEY AND EXPERIENCE WITH TKP

My journey with The Kingdom Project (TKP) began twelve years ago as a medical student and member of CMDA-S, LAUTECH Teaching Hospital. Through our partnership with TLC Osogbo, I attended TLC in 2014. In 2015, as Missions Coordinator, I mobilised and led members to MEE, where I had a profound encounter with God that permanently connected my heart to missions through TKP. Since then, I have participated in TLC and MEE whenever possible, joined the Ambassador Medical Missions (AMM) team, and personally adopted the TKP Benin Republic Missions through groaning, giving and going.

After becoming a medical practitioner, I volunteered as a missionary doctor at Ambassador Medical Centre, Elebu. There, I witnessed God transform the community's perception of the clinic, particularly among the Fulani community, who gradually began seeking medical care.

One unforgettable experience was a one-month-old baby who was brought to the clinic dead after an extremely critical condition, profoundly pale from severe anaemia. When the baby arrived at the clinic, the family reported that, at the point of arrival, she came back to life. Following my assessment, I explained to the family that the baby required urgent referral for hospital admission and blood transfusion. However the family refused, insisting that the Jesus who had brought their baby back to life would also complete the healing through us.

At that point, having done all that was medically possible within our setting, I committed the situation to God. I provided available medical care, closely monitoring and prayed from the depth of my heart:

“Lord, You who have started this miracle, please bring it to perfect completion.”

Surprisingly, the baby made a remarkable recovery within one week, becoming visibly pink and clinically well. What had seemed like a hopeless situation had suddenly become a testimony. Glory to Jesus!

This experience reinforced my conviction that medicine is a powerful instrument in God's hands, but ultimately, life and healing belong to Jesus.

Looking back, as I join in the celebration of 30 years of impact, TKP has been more than a mission organisation to me; it has been a major part of my journey of discovering God's heart for the nations and learning to use medicine, compassion and service to meet human needs and advance the Gospel.

I remain grateful for the privilege of serving through TKP.

DR. OLUMIDE OLUSOLA
Associate Missionary, TKP

Being a part of TKP has been of TREMENDOUS BLESSING - Mr & Mrs Alade.

Being a part of TKP has been of tremendous blessing to our family. Through a platform like the Tentmakers institute, we have been trained and equipped to play our part in global missions right where God has placed us.

It's also such a privilege to touch the world through the intercessory prayers organised by TKP. Touching lives at Christmas is also one of the ways we have been privileged to partake in the global harvest under the umbrella of TKP, serving alongside brethren from various denominations with one goal of reaching the lost.

We have also met amazing brothers and sisters in Christ in TKP, and this makes TKP to indeed be a one big family. In our few years of being part of TKP, we have seen the faithfulness of God play out over and over again in the ministry and also in our own lives.

We believe this anniversary is a warm up for the great and mighty things God is set to do in this Ministry Happy 30th Anniversary.

The History of WOMEN ON MISSION INTERCESSORY GROUP WOMIG - MRS. FUNMI ADEBAYO

The vision for the WOMEN ON MISSION INTERCESSORY GROUP (WOMIG) which is one of the ministry arms of TKP, was conceived and birthed in 2005. Prior to this, TKP had been having a weekly time of one hour intercession for missions every Friday. Attendance at this cut across all ages and genders.

However, the Lord began to impress the need to specifically mobilize more women for missions, beginning with Intercession. In trickles, the women (single and married) began to gather to meet once a month (precisely on the last Saturday of the month). This meeting day had its own challenges, Saturdays being days known for events. Most women would have attended one event or the other in the morning till afternoon hours and would just be returning home about the time the Intercessory meeting was starting. Some would manage to come straight from their events to attend this intercessory hour, while some others found it challenging. Yet, we kept at it faithfully, until the COVID 19 lockdown opened to us an opportunity to move our meeting online. Now we meet more regularly (weekly) with more participants on board, every Saturday night.

In 2008, the Lord impressed upon my heart to enlarge the tents of WOMIG, organizing an annual prayer summit still with the aim of mobilizing women for Missions Intercession. Part of the objectives of this intercession was also to encourage those women, who by reason of age (as elderly) or status as nursing mothers, could not go for the annual Easter outreach (MEE) organized by TKP and those organized by their local Churches or denominations. Some newly married, young nursing mothers, did not have to be left out in Missions. The WOMEN INTERCESSORS SUMMIT(WIS) was birthed and ever since then, it became an annual program that holds on the Easter Monday of each year. The program is now organized as a hybrid where we have some participants connecting virtual, and others joining on site.

In 2016, The Lord yet impressed the need to mobilize more women involvement in Missions. The vision of WOMEN IN MANAGEMENT MISSIONS SEMINAR (WIMMS) was birthed. The first WIMMS took place in Ilorin, June, 2016. It was an awesome time of having the women get enlightened about Missions. This carried on for some years after, yet with some challenges but the impact of this program went far and wide. The WIMMS also was organized by TKP Mission, for Christian women in Tamale, Northern Ghana.

Afterwards, God moved us to begin to mobilize single Christian ladies, exposing them into the depth of what Global Missions was all about. In 2019, the vision for LADIES OF THE HARVEST MISSIONS SEMINAR was birthed. It was initially intended for ladies occupying leadership positions in Campus Christian Fellowships but by the fourth edition, it was broadened to accommodate as many Christian sisters as would desire to participate. The first edition held at the TKP Tent in March 2019, followed by another one in June 2019. Other editions followed in subsequent years. The program gathered female campus Christian leaders from various campus fellowships across Ilorin metropolis. Subsequently, in 2023, the program extended to campus fellowships within the University of Ibadan, Oyo State.

For the impacts that these initiatives have accomplished, we return all the glory to God. As TKP clocks 30, we pray that God's kingdom continues to advance through our labour, using every available platform and opportunity. Amen!

To God be the Glory!

THE STATION THAT WOULDN'T STAY OFF AIR

GBENGA ADEKEYE

TKP Online Radio marks 30 years of TKP by proving that a dream deferred is not a dream denied

In 2003, a small radio programme called Hunger for Reality went out on air from Ilorin, carrying the same burden that had sent TKP's first missionaries into Niger Republic and Senegal: that the Body of Christ needed to hear, plainly and repeatedly, that the Great Commission was not a suggestion. Three years in, technical failures pulled the plug. The programme went silent. For anyone counting, that could have been the end of the story.

It wasn't.

Seventeen years later, in 2020, in the middle of a season when the whole world had been forced indoors and onto screens, the same burden returned, this time with better tools and a bigger stage. TKP Online Radio was launched, and Hunger for Reality went back on air, no longer needing a transmitter mast, a broadcast license, or a listener within range of a signal. All it needed was a browser and the address www.tkpradio.org. Today the station broadcasts every hour of every day, to anyone anywhere with a phone in their pocket or a laptop on their table.

That the station exists at all is a small parable of how TKP itself has grown. What began as one missionary sent to St. Louis, Senegal, has become work spanning 24 nations. What began as a single programme that went dark has become a 24/7 broadcast that never does. If TKP's thirty years have taught this ministry anything, it is that God has a habit of resurrecting what looked like a closed chapter and handing it back larger than before.

A modern-day School of Tyrannus

TKP Online Radio did not set out to be just another Christian station playing worship music between announcements. It was built around a specific, almost provocative idea, borrowed from Acts 19:9 — Paul, shut out of the synagogue, simply moved his teaching to the lecture hall of Tyrannus and kept going. TKP Radio is that lecture hall relocated to the internet: a place for the missions conversation the modern pulpit too often skips.

The station says plainly what many pulpits have grown quiet about, that a gospel reduced to comfort, ease, and personal prosperity has left a generation of Christians who can sit in church for fifty-two Sundays a year and never once hear the word “missions.” TKP Radio exists to interrupt that silence. Its programming does not apologize for being direct: teaching on the Great Commission sits alongside Audio Bible readings, Science and Spirituality segments that take faith and inquiry seriously, Christian Book Review, gospel music, and Hunger for Reality — the programme that survived its own funeral — still hosted by Pastor Olusola Adebayo, still asking the same uncomfortable, necessary question it asked in 2003.

Small station, wide reach

There is no studio audience, no ratings sweep, no billboard on the expressway — and yet the station's reach quietly outruns all of that. A listener in Lanwa and a listener in London can be tuned to the exact same broadcast at the exact same moment, at no cost beyond a data bundle. In a mission organisation that now counts its impact in the hundreds of thousands of souls reached across two dozen nations, radio has become one of the few tools capable of matching that scale without needing a single passport stamp.

Thirty years on, still building the lecture hall

TKP is not celebrating thirty years because the work is finished. It is celebrating because the mustard seed planted among the Songhai people of Tillabery in 1999 kept growing long after anyone would have blamed it for stopping. Through Lanwa, through Ibadan, through nine resident mission fields, through a radio programme that died once and got back up. TKP Online Radio is simply the newest room in a house that keeps adding rooms.

The invitation has not changed since Acts 19: come to the lecture hall. Ours just happens to be open every day, streaming at www.tkpradio.org, waiting for whoever is ready to listen.

TKP Online Radio broadcasts 24/7 at www.tkpradio.org. For programme schedules, podcasts, and more, send a WhatsApp message to +234 808 808 5757.

TKP Online Radio: BRINGING THE GOSPEL TO THE WORLD THROUGH MODERN TECHNOLOGY (Acts 19:9-10)

God has a unique way of replicating biblical events in modern times, providing us with the resources and technology needed to ensure that everyone has access to the Gospel. TKP Online Radio is a wonderful example of this vision in action. From its inception, the ministry was inspired by the clear call to bring the biblical concept of the School of Tyrannus in Ephesus into the modern age (Acts 19:9-10). Today, this mission is being fulfilled through the power of online radio broadcasting.

TKP Online Radio serves as a platform that blesses both believers and non-believers alike. Through its diverse programmes, listeners around the world can receive encouragement, spiritual nourishment, hope, and inspiration. The platform features experienced and dedicated resource persons who follow carefully planned weekly schedules designed to impact lives positively and draw people closer to Christ.

One of the greatest strengths of TKP Online Radio is its accessibility. There are no geographical barriers to participation. Anyone, anywhere in the world, can access the programmes by visiting tkpradio.org. This global reach enables the Gospel message to be shared far beyond the limits of traditional ministry methods.

The station offers a variety of engaging and life-transforming programmes to meet the needs and interests of different audiences. Some of these include Hunger for Reality, Inspiration, Attempt Great Things for God, Book Reading, Science and Spirituality, Christian Book Review, and Story Time. In addition, listeners can enjoy Bible reading in Pidgin English and a rich selection of seasoned gospel music that uplifts the spirit and strengthens faith.

At TKP Online Radio, we believe that every broadcast is an opportunity to point people toward Christ and help them grow in their spiritual journey. Whether you are seeking encouragement, biblical teaching, inspiration, or uplifting worship, this platform provides valuable resources to support your walk with God.

We believe that TKP Online Radio is more than just an online station; it is a stepping stone to greater heights in Christ. Through sound teaching, inspiring content, and the effective use of modern technology, the ministry continues to fulfil its mission of spreading the Gospel and transforming lives across the globe.

TENTMAKERS INSTITUTE

HELPING CHRISTIAN PROFESSIONALS

- To be thoroughly furnished unto every good work
- To locate their place in global missions
- To get connected with their calling
- To combine secular work with spiritual responsibility of raising disciple for Jesus

Dorcas Adebayo-Olaosebikan serves the LORD as TKP Director of Training

TKP started a three-month training, code-named MISSIONARY TRAINING INSTITUTE (MTI), in 1998. By 2013, the training was repackaged and renamed TENTMAKERS INSTITUTE (TI). This was done to give more attention to Christian Professionals. TI has three modules, taking place in three contacts. The three modules are Foundational Training, Intermediate Training and Advance Training.

For thirteen years, we focused on the Foundational Training. We held many editions physically in several cities in Nigeria, Ghana, Uganda, Kenya, Rwanda, and Poland. The COVID-19 pandemic brought a new dimension to our methodology - the training became fully virtual, with trainees participating from different countries such as Ghana, India, Nigeria, Canada, Uganda, Australia, UK, USA, Botswana, etc!

The TI Foundational Training lasts for 10 days; March 1-10 and September 1-10 every year. Over 1,250 people have undergone this training. Some of the people who have taken the TI Foundational training have been able to locate their place in the global missions. Some are serving the LORD under the umbrella of TKP, while others are serving GOD in other places, including their Church denominations. However, we have others who, regrettably, are yet to find their feet in missions.

The TI Intermediate training made her debut this year and will take place June 1-5 every year, with the goal of helping missionaries and missions-enthusiasts take their knowledge of global missions to the next level. Almost 100 people participated in this newly launched Intermediate training and have resolved to “...get past the elementary stage...” (Heb.6:1 Amplified).

The TI Advance training will kick off in November and will hold from the 1st to the 3rd, every year. We look forward to the great testimonies that will follow this and the blessing the trainees would be to the kingdom of God.

Annually, on the first Sunday in December, the TI Alumni Reunion holds virtually. This reunion is for everyone who has ever taken the Tentmakers Institute training. It is an opportunity to be reminded, encouraged, refueled, and repositioned.

Dearly beloved, be the reason why someone registers for the TI training, be the reason why someone fulfils the call to missions, be the reason why someone hears the gospel, be the reason why someone accepts Christ as Lord and Saviour, be the reason why a missionary has the financial resources to witness, be the reason why someone is upheld in prayers.

Let your furnishing be unto every good work! (2Tim 3.17)

Shalom.

Reflections on Vision, Missions and an Exceeding Great Army

As The Kingdom Projects (TKP) celebrates thirty years of God's faithfulness under the theme, "An Exceedingly Great Army" (Ezekiel 37:10), I find myself reflecting on the ordinary lives God has transformed through this vision. I count it a profound privilege that my own story has become one small thread in that larger tapestry.

Looking back, I realize that God had been preparing my heart for missions from my early years through parents whose lives reflected pioneer ministry and church planting, and through my local church, ECWA, where I received some of my earliest glimpses of God's heart for the nations. Yet, when I joined The Kingdom Projects in 2016, those early convictions found fresh depth, practical expression, and a community that challenged me to see missions not simply as something we support, but as a way of life.

One of my earliest opportunities to live out that vision came in 2017 during my National Youth Service in Sokoto, where I had the privilege of coordinating my first Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) outreach alongside my wife (then fiancée). Looking back, I now see that experience as much more than an outreach programme. It was an invitation to move from admiring the vision to actively participating in it. It taught me that missions is often expressed through simple acts of obedience, compassionate service, and faithful presence wherever God places us.

As my professional journey later took me from Nigeria to the United Kingdom and eventually Canada, I discovered that the vision I encountered in TKP travelled with me. It quietly shaped far more than my understanding of missions; it shaped my understanding of vocation. I began to see that God does not only send missionaries to remote areas; He also sends His people into classrooms, boardrooms, banks, hospitals, communities, businesses and every sphere of influence to faithfully represent Christ.

Whether serving through TKP Professionals in Missions (PIM), teaching with the Tentmakers Institute (TI), presenting on TKP Online Radio, or now having the privilege of leading the young work of TKP Canada alongside my wife, I have come to appreciate that missions is not defined primarily by geography, it is defined by obedience. It is the daily privilege of making Christ known wherever He sends us and using every platform He entrusts to us for His Kingdom.

One of the unique gifts God has given TKP is this integrated vision of missions. It has consistently reminded us that ministry is not confined to a church building, and the marketplace is not separate from God's Great Commission. The same vision that sends some across continents into rural communities also sends others across the office, across the classroom, across the street, or across the dining table. Every believer has a part to play, and every place can become a mission field.

As we celebrate thirty years of God's faithfulness, I am grateful not only for the programmes, outreaches and initiatives that have touched countless lives, but also for the generations of ordinary believers God has continued to raise through this vision. They are teachers, professionals, students, pastors, entrepreneurs, parents and missionaries whose lives quietly proclaim Christ wherever He has planted them. To me, this is part of what Ezekiel's vision points us toward: God breathing His life into ordinary people and raising an exceeding great army for His glory.

My prayer is that long after the celebrations have ended, God will continue to breathe upon this vision, raising new generations who will not merely inherit its activities but embrace its convictions. May He continue to raise men and women whose lives proclaim His Kingdom in every nation, every profession and every generation, until the whole earth is filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord.

From a Mission Field To a Mission Force

Pastor Daniel and Christy Kenaston

Greetings of love and respect! Christy and I send our heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of TKP. Truly, God has been faithful to this organization through all these years!! I am so excited about the work of TKP, specifically the ways that God is using the various ministries of this organization to raise up missionaries across many different levels of West African Christianity.

It is my passion to see West Africa move from a Mission Field to a Mission Force, and I see God using the ministries of TKP International to do this on many different fronts.

Recently, the history of Christian missions in South Korea has been a great challenge to me. Protestant missions to South Korea started in 1884. 90 years later, in 1974, the first missionaries were sent from South Korea. 24 missionaries left South Korea to other countries in 1974. From that very small starting point, the missions sending potential of South Korea has exploded over the last 50 years. Today, approximately 30,000 missionaries are sent and supported from the churches of South Korea. South Korea is currently the second nation in the world in terms of sending missionaries, but when you compare it per capita, South Korea very likely leads the Christian world in sending missionaries relative to the size of the Christian population. South Korea is approximately 25% Christian, with a total national population of about 55 million, which makes this statistic of 32,000 missionaries sent from South Korea truly amazing. Two of the defining characteristics that set South Korean Christians apart is their commitment to missions and their commitment to daily early morning prayer meetings at five a.m.

Pastor Daniel Kenaston

Serves as a Board Member, TKP-USA BOARD

This is the kind of potential both in prayer and sending that we want to see raised up out of West Africa! I believe God is in the early stages of raising up an army of Christians out of West Africa, which will carry the gospel to remaining unreached areas within West Africa and on to other parts of the world. I am very excited to be a part of this vision, and I am celebrating with TKP International on this 30th anniversary. May God continue to use our international director and all of the other missionary staff to call people into God's missionary purposes, equip them, encourage them, and send them. Let's all pray together and work towards a vision of West Africa changing from a mission field to a mission force. We celebrate you, TKP @30Sincerely,

REV. PROF. JOSHUA A. OMOTOSHO and PASTOR OLUSOLA ADEBAYO

It is with profound gratitude to the Almighty God and great joy that I extend my warmest congratulations to the leadership, staff, volunteers, partners, and friends of TKP as we celebrate the 30th Anniversary under the inspiring theme: "Exceedingly Great Army Celebrating the Faithfulness of God." This theme beautifully echoes Ezekiel's vision of God transforming a valley of dry bones into "an exceedingly great army" (Ezekiel 37:10). Over the past three decades, the Lord has likewise raised, equipped, and sustained TKP as a vibrant force for the Gospel, faithfully proclaiming Jesus Christ and advancing His Kingdom across Nigeria and beyond. This Pearl Jubilee is more than a celebration of longevity; it is a testimony to God's unfailing faithfulness. Through every season, the Lord has remained TKP's Shepherd, Provider, and Helper. Countless lives have been transformed, believers strengthened, workers mobilized, and Christ glorified through TKP's unwavering commitment to biblical truth, evangelism, discipleship, and compassionate service. Indeed, "Great is Your faithfulness" (Lamentations 3:22–23). As TKP enters a new chapter, may God enlarge its influence, renew its strength, and raise even more faithful labourers for His harvest. May this "exceedingly great army" remain steadfast, Spirit-filled, and fruitful, always "abounding in the work of the Lord" (1 Corinthians 15:58). May the Lord continue to establish the work of the hands of all TKP celebrants (Psalm 90:17), preserve us in humility and faithfulness, and grant that TKP's greatest Kingdom impact will still lie ahead, until "the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea" (Habakkuk 2:14).

"30 YEARS OF GOD'S FAITHFULNESS ... AN EXCEEDINGLY GREAT ARMY OF JESUS CHRIST ... THE BEST IS YET TO COME!"

PASTOR AYOTUNDE OKEOWO

Beloved Folks (Olusola & Funmi Adebayo) I am honoured to be asked to contribute a goodwill message to The Kingdom Projects (TKP) on the occasion of your 30th Year Anniversary and your preparations for TLC 2026.

The Lord Himself says to us in His Word in Malachi 3¹⁶⁻¹⁸ "Then those who feared the Lord spoke to one another, and the Lord listened ..."

May the assurance of God's presence and approval fortify you with comfort and renewed vigour and vitality by which to proceed onwards with the work He has graciously placed in your hands; and may His name be increasingly glorified in all our lives.

I am thankful for the privilege to be associated with your labours for Him.

Yours in His Saving grace and Privileged Service

REV'D BODE AMOO

It is with immense pleasure and gratitude to God that I write this message commemorating the 30th anniversary of a ministry that is after my heart: The Kingdom Project, otherwise known as TKP.

The heartbeat of our father in heaven is about souls, and anything we can do to satisfy that desire is a worthwhile effort. That is why the missionary focus of TKP attracted my attention and I want to gladly report that since our relationship began there has not been a letdown. I celebrate the commitment and steadfastness of our brethren in the TKP; men and women who keep soldering on notwithstanding what may be on the terrain. I am grateful to God for giving us men and women who are faithful to the call, who are consistent in their yearnings for the souls of men in hidden places. I know that most of your works are in places we can safely regarded as 'unknown lands' but I stand assured that our father who sees in the secret will surely reward you in the open for this labour of love according to His promise in Matthew 6:4.

SURELY, THE LORD IS WITH YOU

I have been following the trajectory of TKP over the years and I stand to affirm the integrity that drives the vision and as we mark this milestone, I wish to challenge our brethren: continue to be faithful, do not relent in your steadfast pursuit of the vision, drive more inward into the unknown lands to make known to them the true God and His love.

Surely, the Lord is with you, and will continue to abundantly provide whatever is needed for the next level.

Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) is a platform and strategic operation God gave to His servant, the International Director of The Kingdom Project, Evangelist Olusola Adebayo.

It is the demonstration of the wisdom of God to reach and rescue the dying world, through the Love of God shown to the people every 25th day of December. This a special day when other people celebrate and enjoy with their families but brethren with sacrificial love of God, go to villages and designated places to shower the people with the love of God, good news of salvation, medical care and welfare materials. It has been an experience that the lost, embraces and step into since inception. It a great privilege to be part of first ever TLC in 2001 when six (6,) villages were reached out to. It is a great time for brethren forum for examining ourselves and empowerment for higher responsibilities. This first of which took place at Ladabu village after the outreach. To God alone be all the Glory.

TKP IN GHANA:

A Story of Vision, Obedience, and God's Faithfulness

Bolaji Salami
Coordinator, TKP Ghana.

"Where there is a will, there is a way."

These words, often spoken by the International Director of The Kingdom Projects (TKP), Pastor Olusola Adebayo, have become a living testimony of God's work in Ghana.

The story began in 2008 when Professor Henry Owolabi, a Professor of Social Sciences Education at the University of Ilorin, came to the University of Cape Coast on sabbatical. Rather than seeing his stay as merely an academic assignment, he recognized it as a divine opportunity for the gospel. Burdened for souls, he introduced Touching Lives at Christmas (TLC) Outreach to Cape Coast. What seemed like a simple step of obedience became the doorway through which TKP's ministry entered Ghana.

God was only beginning.

In 2010, the International Director of TKP visited Accra, Ghana, with his family. During the visit, he met Rev. Dr. Gordon Croffet, the visionary leader of Excellent Youth Outreach (EYO). United by a shared passion to see the Kingdom of God advanced, both ministries forged a strategic partnership that led to the organization of TLC Outreach in Accra. The partnership expanded the vision and strengthened the conviction that Ghana was a strategic mission field prepared by God.

Then came a defining moment.

In 2011, TKP organized the Festival of Mercy (FM) Outreach in the Northern Region of Ghana, bringing together over 100 missionaries and volunteers from Nigeria, Togo, and Benin. As the team ministered across the streets of Tamale and campuses, they encountered an overwhelming spiritual harvest and vast unreached populations. The needs were enormous, and the opportunities for the gospel were undeniable. It became increasingly clear that occasional outreaches alone would not be enough. Ghana needed resident missionaries.

The season of preparation had begun.

Humanly speaking, I never imagined that I would be the one to pioneer this assignment. I did not consider myself the most qualified or the obvious choice. But God's ways are higher than ours. In His sovereign wisdom, He prepared, positioned, and sent me into this harvest field. My journey is a testimony that God delights in using those who depend on His strength rather than their own abilities.

In 2013, after participating in the Festival of Mercy Outreach in Burkina Faso, I did not return home with the rest of the team. Instead, on 10th November 2013, I crossed into Northern Ghana to begin the missionary work.

A new chapter had begun.

By December 2013, the TLC Outreach was successfully held in Tamale, and by February 2014, the TKP Ghana Mission Office was officially established in Tamale, the capital of the Northern Region. From this modest beginning, God steadily expanded the work beyond all expectations.

Today, after more than twelve years of continuous ministry, the faithfulness of God is evident.

Through annual TLC Outreaches, Missionary Exposure and Experience (MEE), Fellowship of African Christian Teachers (FACT), From Campus to the World (FCTW), Retired But Not Tired (RBNT), leadership development, discipleship, church planting, community transformation, and many other ministry initiatives, TKP has carried the gospel across nearly every region of Ghana.

By God's grace:

- Hundreds of communities have been reached with the gospel.
- Churches have been planted where no churches previously existed, particularly among the Dagomba, Gonja, and Fulani peoples.
- A Christian school providing quality education and hope for underprivileged children now serves more than 190 pupils.
- Seven boreholes have been drilled in underserved rural communities, providing access to clean and safe drinking water and demonstrating Christ's love through practical service.
- Missionaries, associates, volunteers, and ministry partners continue to serve faithfully under the banner of TKP Ghana, impacting lives and raising disciples for Christ.

As the work has grown, so has the responsibility.

Today, TKP Ghana serves as the coordinating hub for TKP's missionary work across West Africa, providing leadership, training, mobilization, and support for expanding gospel ministry throughout the region. Our vision remains clear: to raise committed disciples of Jesus Christ, mobilize and equip more labourers for the harvest, and help the Body of Christ seize the unprecedented opportunities for missions across West Africa.

Yet, the harvest is still plentiful.

Millions across West Africa have never heard the gospel in a way they can understand. Communities still wait for churches to be planted. Schools need to be established. Across Northern Ghana, many rural villages continue to struggle without access to clean and safe drinking water. Missionaries need training, support, and encouragement. The opportunities before us are greater than ever.

We believe the best days of this ministry are still ahead because the Lord of the harvest is still calling labourers.

Will you answer the call?

As we celebrate The Kingdom Projects 30 years anniversary, we warmly invite you to partner with The Kingdom Projects through your prayers, financial support, professional skills, and personal involvement.

The harvest is ready. The time is now. Let us labour together for the King.

My family & I were privilege to participate in the first exchange program of TKP missionary teachers. We spent three months in Panshegu, nortnen Ghana with our fellow TKP missionaries.

It was an enriching time with many unforgettable experience.

As we were in Ghana Rogatus & Salome were also in Nigeria for the same exchange program.

Celebrating TKP @ 30!

Ten years ago, as TKP marked its 20th Anniversary, God gave us the assurance of Faith to Face the Future. As we stepped forward in obedience, He supplied us with Power for Progress, and through His Divine Prescription, we witnessed undeniable proof that Our God Reigns! Hallelujah!

Strengthened by His grace, we were Strengthened in the Inner Man, enabling us to embrace His call to 'Sharpening Your Cutting Edge.' He then taught us that lasting impact is built on a Leadership Lifestyle.

The journey did not end there. By His unfailing mercy, we have continued From Strength to Strength, remaining Connected to the Source, where He graciously endowed us with Winning Wisdom for every season.

Today, the result stands before us — An Exceedingly Great Army! Men and women raised, equipped, and sent by God, gathered to celebrate 30 years of His faithfulness, grace, and mighty works through The Kingdom Projects (TKP). To God alone be all the glory!

MARKETPLACE MINISTRY: My Personal Story

Getting appointment as a Lecturer after PhD in 2022 came with the opportunity to practice the several lessons learnt in The Kingdom Projects (TKP) on Tentmaking. Getting to the University and assessing the situation, there was a tug in my heart like a cry for help. I understood that there was an assignment in that place.

I was privileged to become Acting Dean within two weeks of resumption which gave me access to both staff and students as I have to mentor them as part of my job description. Relational discipleship was employed in my interactions with staff and students, every problem that came to my table was tackled promptly, openly within the confines of the policies and ended with a can I pray with you?

Diligence in that position and helping out in the Registry opened a door in the Registry and I was appointed Registrar Academics. This became a platform to reach more staff and students. Diligence, discipline, honesty, hard work and prayers were values employed in the office. A prayer unit was formed to pray for staff and students weekly and like Nehemiah we had our tools in one hand and our weapon of prayer in the other hand as we faced the challenges associated with Institutional Accreditation.

The institutional accreditation was gotten to the glory of God.

Proverbs 22:29 "Do you see a man who excels in his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before unknown men."

FROM A SIMPLE INTRODUCTION TO A LIFE OF PURPOSE

My journey with The Kingdom Projects (TKP) began in 2008 through my friend Fagoroye Abiodun. After the introduction, I joined the TLC participants that year. At first, I thought it was simply a programme I would attend and move on from. Little did I know that God had brought me there for something much deeper. In His divine plan, I discovered that my fulfilment was connected to the mission. Through several personal encounters, God gradually made it clear that He wanted me to join the team in full-time missions in 2017. Even my interview day remains a dramatically remarkable experience that I will never forget.

My missionary journey took me from Ibadan, Oyo State, to Okutala Village in Moro Local Government Area of Kwara State, where I served as a missionary teacher. Moving from the city to a village was a great journey of faith and absolute dependence on God. Travelling between villages to preach Jesus, praying for the sick, confronting challenges through the strength of Christ, and witnessing lives transformed remain precious memories. I saw some of our pupils surrender their lives to Christ, and it is a joy to know that some are still growing and doing great in the Lord today.

After more than two years in Okutala, I was transferred to another village in Kwara State. There, my responsibilities increased as I became a headmistress and field leader, while also serving as a village pastor, nurturing converts and overseeing the work in the field.

One of the beautiful fruits of this journey is Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School, which started on May 6, 2019, with just three children. The International Director of TKP was present at our first assembly and declared blessings of greatness, progress, and protection over the school and its staff. From those three children, God has faithfully brought steady growth, and today, the school has grown to over 300 pupils. Truly, this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes. As Scripture says, "I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase." — 1 Corinthians 3:6.

We have continued to witness the faithfulness of God through answered prayers, provision, protection, and His grace for excellence upon our pupils. Through the school, the village community has also experienced the blessing of God. What began as education became a platform for reaching the unreached.

I celebrate and appreciate my fellow missionary teachers, the pioneers, the main office, and everyone God has used to shape and support this journey. The TKP TENT has been a tremendous backbone to the work.

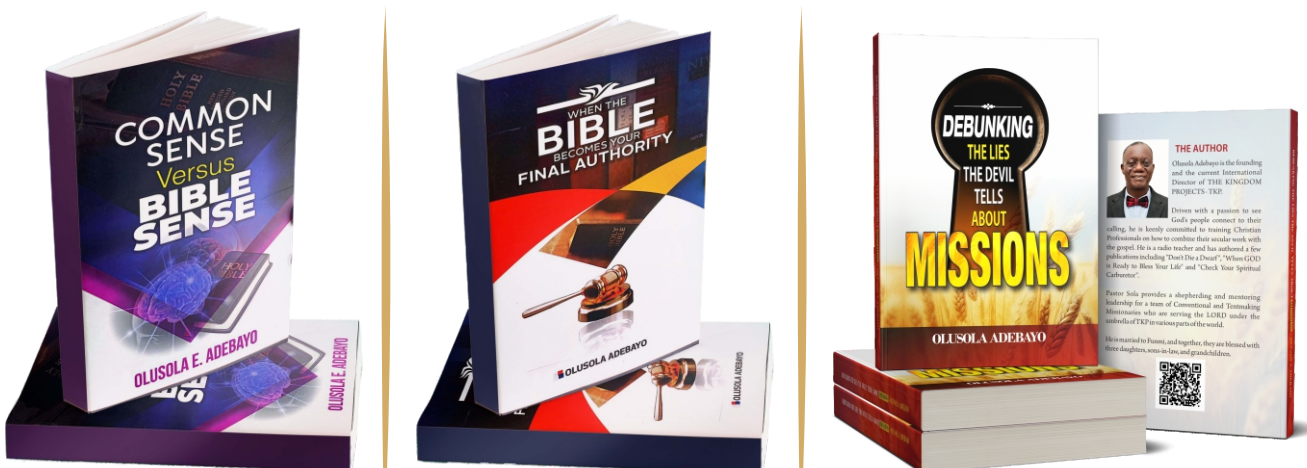

Above all, I am deeply grateful to God for the privilege of serving Him through this platform. I may not fully understand all the reasons He brought me here, but I know that He knew the end from the beginning.

As I celebrate TKP@30, I celebrate the faithfulness of an awesome God who called, instructed, and empowered His servant, Pastor Olushola Adebayo, to begin this work. What started as a seed has become a tree under which many have found a place to serve.

To God alone be all the glory!

THE FAMILY SPIRIT IN US

A Great Army is strengthened not only by its mission but also by the love, unity, and care shared among them.

"Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another" (Romans 12:10). This biblical principle is part of our culture in TKP. We rejoice with those who rejoice and stand with one another in every season of life. Be it birthday, arrival of a newborn, wedding anniversary, promotion, or significant milestone, every member is celebrated. These moments are announced on our WhatsApp platforms, where the entire family is encouraged to pray, rejoice, and express heartfelt love to the celebrant.

It has been a privilege to be among those entrusted with announcing these family celebrations, including designing birthday cards and sharing announcements that unite the family in love and prayer. Time and again, the responses from celebrants testify that these simple acts of kindness leave lasting impressions. One heartfelt appreciation reads:

"A heartfelt thank you to my wonderful family for all the love, prayers, and kind wishes. I'm truly grateful for your support and for the blessing of being part of such a caring family in Christ. I appreciate every message, every prayer, and every act of love. May the Lord richly bless you all and keep us growing together in His grace and love. Amen."

Such expressions affirm that TKP is truly more than an organization; it is a family. We live out Romans 12:15

Mrs. Oluwagbotemi Ayodele TKP Administrator.

"Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep." This family spirit has strengthened our bonds, encouraged our missionaries across different fields, offices and subsidiaries fostering a great sense of belonging.

As we celebrate 30 years of God's faithfulness, we warmly invite you to become part of the TKP family. Whether as a Tent-Making Missionary, Conventional Missionary, or Associate Missionary. Join An Exceedingly Great Army that God is raising, and together let us take the Gospel to the nations.

"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another" (John 13:35, KJV). May this family spirit continue to flourish in TKP for generations to come, as God continues to raise An Exceedingly Great Army, to the glory of His name. Amen!

SAILING WITH THE GOD OF MISSIONS

Genesis 7:1

I am Sayo Alimi. By God's grace, I support my Husband in coordinating TKP's activities in the UK. Over the years, I have come to see God as the God of missions, and walking with Him has opened my eyes to divine possibilities. I have discovered that small acts of love, when offered in obedience, can touch lives in unimaginable ways.

For TLC, we visit hospitals, and we have seen the sick smile again and lives touched. We also shared Christmas with university students, and we came back with testimonies. A student shared that it was not the Christmas he expected, but it became his best so far. That testimony reminded me that mission is not always about doing something big; sometimes it is about showing up with love at the right time.

Each year, sitting with children and preparing Christmas gifts also reminds me that no one is too small to be included in God's work.

After each TLC, we always go home refreshed, and this reminds me that both the goers and the recipients are always blessed.

I am sold out to this course, and I invite you to get into the boat and let's sail with the God of missions.

BARR. SAYO ALIMI

Tent-Making Missionary, United Kingdom/
Chaplain, TKP Online Radio.

My name is NDAH KOUAGOU Ezéchiél. I first came across TKP in Benin Republic through Missionary Tosin. He and I met for the first time at the University of Parakou in 2021, during one of his programmes there. That's how we became friends, after he showed me the importance of the mission. I began by taking part in various TKP programmes in Benin, such as MEE and TLC. Right from the first day, during our conversations, he asked me what I wanted to do after finishing my university studies. I told him I wanted to go to Bible college to become a pastor, and that I didn't think I'd finish my university studies before going there. But, encouraging me, he told me to carry on and finish my university studies, as God might then clearly show me my calling. I took his advice, and we began by visiting the campus for the programmes. I felt a desire to share the Gospel with my fellow students. We started by taking part in the MEE programmes. I took part in my first MEE programme in 2021 in Yonclokali, where I saw people from other countries dedicating themselves to the mission and coming to my country for Christ. That really moved me, as I'd never seen anything like it at home. Even though many people don't want to go into the villages to share the Gospel, I really enjoyed it and it encouraged me. I also took part in MEE in Bouanri in 2022 and in Tanakpé in 2023. What really struck me during these programmes was that, with TKP, it's all about being out in the field and nobody sees themselves as being in a position of authority there – that's the true role of a missionary.

Alongside this, before the TLC programme was taking place in Djougou town centre and I was leaving home to join them, I spoke to the missionary about allowing me to bring the programme to my home town, where I would be the coordinator in Partago. This was approved, leading to the establishment of the TLC Partago centre. During these TLC programmes, I saw that TKP combines its work with social initiatives, and that it works effectively on the ground – this moved me deeply once again. Many souls have been saved, and through this TLC programme in Partago, we have been able to establish three different churches. It is truly marvellous.

I have finally realised that my calling is to be a missionary. So I asked God to show me which Christian organisation would fulfil my missionary calling. So God led me to TKP, and I realised it was the answer to my calling. I therefore joined TKP, first as an office manager in Parakou, and then went to Nigeria with my family to receive further training. It was there that I gained even greater hope for what mission work is all about. I realised that with TKP, there is so much we can do as missionaries.

The organisation therefore placed its trust in me and, after some time in training, I was sent back to the country to serve as an evangelistic missionary and church planter in the municipality of Kandi, northern region of Benin Republic, specifically in Sam and Tankongou, where our new TKP missionary base is located.

My family and I arrived there on 21 May 2026, and I thus became a full-time missionary with TKP. We are proud to answer God's call and to work with TKP.

Finally, we would like to appeal to you: we truly need your support in every way. Although this is a new mission field, it is difficult without you. Whether near or far, please support us spiritually, materially, financially and even emotionally, so that the Lord's work may proceed smoothly amongst the Baruba people.

Mr. NDAH KOUAGOU Ezéchiél

INROADS INTO UGANDA THE PEARL OF AFRICA

Ademola Olaniyan Tent-Making Missionary University of Botswana

The journey to Uganda began quietly in the realm of the Spirit, even when the beautiful land-locked country was nowhere in the picture in our hearts. It began with a simple and sincere prayer “Lord, where you lead me, I will go.” As simple and sincere as the prayer was, when the heavens responded, the answer didn't look appealing. “Uganda! Lord, why Uganda?” That was the case, but one thing is sure: where there are willing vessels (hearts), God is ready to show Himself strong no matter the doubts, fear and mixed feelings. After a reluctant response to a job advert, the journey of faith began, and the rest became history that is woven into a nine-year sojourn in Uganda, the Pearl of Africa (August 17th, 2016, to August 16th, 2025).

From TLC (2016) and MEE (2017) in Nakakonge in Kayunga District to the first major visit to the Sabiny people group of Bukwo Town in Eastern Uganda (April 2017) the story began. The Bukwo experience, after a cool 6-hour travel from Kampala to Kapchorwa, followed by riding on “Boda-boda” (motorcycle), across the jungles, climbing hills and rough roads from Kapchorwa to Bukwo for 1 hour 45 mins (You don't know what that means for someone who has a phobia for height and hills). Ministration couldn't hold that evening because the vessel was tired and worn out from the rigorous experience of the rough terrain. The next two days were a great success. In a closing remark, the words of the lead pastor in the host community went thus: “Our brother from Nigeria, thank you for loving us and for coming despite the challenges on our road which made several ministers in the city to turn down our invitations. I would like to say that because of the experience you will yet go through while you are returning, we only hope that you find grace and be willing to come back to us again.” Those words didn't make sense until reality dawned on me after the journey of an average of 7-8 hours from Bukwo to Kampala turned to 21 hours. That was one of several experiences, but those experiences didn't define us. The mandate to go make disciples was the driving force.

To the glory of God, MEE was held in Bukwo in 2019; lives were touched, and souls were saved. The MEE team that year can recount their experiences on the road. We prayed and asked the Lord to remember and speed up the process of road construction in that region. The Lord answered us. In 2024, we went back for a weekend ministration; it was a smooth and beautiful experience on the road.

The frontier of missions through the ministry of TKP-Uganda was expanded across the length and breadth of Eastern, Western, Northern, West-Nile and Central Uganda among the Baganda, Teso, Acholi, Sabiny, Karamoja and Aringa people groups. Our strategies include; TLC, MEE and Medical outreaches, FCTW seminars, training of Christian professionals and students, scholarship and support for students at all levels, discipleship and strengthening of the body of Christ across East African communities. The fruit of eventful nine years lives on. Lives were touched, souls were saved, disciples were made and are being made, and mission stakeholders were raised.

When preparation meets with opportunity, and the readiness to go meets with the trust in faithful leading of the LORD, the sender, only eternity can tell what the end results will be.

THE REPUBLIC OF BOTSWANA

The beautiful, small, landlocked country in Southern Africa of about 2.5 Million population spread across an area of 581,730 square kilometers. Botswana is widely known as the "Gem of Africa" or the "Land of Diamonds" due to its immense mineral wealth. The country is also famously called the "Miracle of Africa" in reference to its remarkable economic growth and political stability since gaining independence. Botswana is strategically located as gateway to many Southern Africa Countries.

Currently, the country is going through economic crisis which is affecting different areas of life and livelihood in the country. Let us pray for restoration and divine visitation over this small but strategic African Nation. "Ask of Me, and I will assuredly give [You] the nations as Your inheritance, And the ends of the earth as Your possession." Psalm 2:8 (AMP)

MY PERSONAL EXPERIENCE WHILE SERVING IN TKP

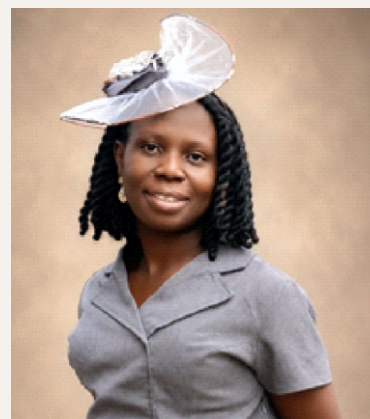

As I reflect on my journey with the Kingdom Projects, especially on this anniversary, my heart is filled with gratitude. This mission has shaped my life in profound ways. It has taught me accountability, faithful stewardship of time and seasons, and the importance of weighing present realities against eternal values. Above all, it has shown me that God's purpose must remain the center of my life.

Years ago, as a young girl, I would occasionally see myself in a strange land, sitting beneath trees and speaking to children, surrounded by round huts. At the time, I did not understand what it meant. Years later, when I arrived on the mission field and saw those same round huts, I realized God had been preparing me for this calling long before I understood it. It was a beautiful confirmation that I was walking in His purpose.

One of the greatest joys of this journey has been seeing my obedience bear fruit in the lives of others. Also through children's outreaches and clubs, I have watched young lives embrace God's call to missions. Seeing them discover and pursue their purpose has been one of the greatest affirmations that our obedience to God extends far beyond ourselves. I am deeply thankful to God for the privilege of serving through the Kingdom Projects and for the eternal impact of this journey.

OLUWAFUNSHO O. SALAMI
Missionary, TKP Ghana.

SERVING IN THE KINGDOM PROJECTS IS EXCITING.

TKP is truly a mustard seed that was planted which has become a big tree mobilizing believers... making missions doable.

I retired from a mission school and needed to continue to serve the Lord. Then I joined the TKP retiree platform, RBNT (Retired But Not Tired), to pray a day in a week. To sit at home was burdensome and boring. So, I prayerfully considered serving at TKP as a volunteer in any area. I then discussed with the International Director who, after a while, decided to call me to coordinate the Tract Department. I have done this for 12 years now. For this, I am grateful to God and our International Director for this unique opportunity.

Serving in this department has enhanced and equipped me personally for active participation in evangelism (the mandate given us by the Master).

Using the tracts printed in TKP has enhanced, equipped and helped many churches, fellowships and individuals to participate more in evangelism - God's mandate for all believers. Apart from our missionaries located beyond the shore of Nigeria, who also take tracts printed by TKP to their fields, individuals living at home and abroad also value them. They also collect them for evangelism in their various locations. Apart from churches and fellowships collecting for their evangelistic endeavors, it has also become a trend for individuals celebrating special occasions like weddings, birthdays, burials, etc., to use the opportunity to share the gospel with their audiences using our tracts.

I believe that through this, we are reaching even impossible places through our tracts and I am highly encouraged.

Please, continue to pray that God's kingdom will continue to advance through our tracts distribution, and for more resources to meet the high demand. Dear reader, you can be a part of this glorious move by contacting TKP Office.

To God be the glory for the great things He is doing through this department and I am grateful to Him for impacting me through TKP.

Happy anniversary! Wishing the organization more fruitful years ahead.

Onward, still upward in Jesus Christ's worthy name. Amen!

Coordinator, Tracts Department

BE THE ANSWER TO THE PRAYERS OF A PERSON/COMMUNITY

Some years ago, we were planning to survey a particular village for TLC program. As we were about to take off, someone among us said why don't we go to check MNGO village (we can hide or change the name of the village for security purpose)?

Eventually, we went to that village, and the Lord directed us to a pastor who has been praying for that village for long. We introduced ourselves and shared the vision with him, then he told us that he's been waiting for us for the past seven years. As we were wondering at what he told us, he told us that seven years ago prior to our arrival, the Lord gave him a dream and he saw many people coming to the village with lot of gifts and Bibles, and they were distributing them to the villagers. Ever since he had that dream, his wife and he have started praying about it. We could see joy and excitement as he was telling us this and appreciating God for answering their prayer. From that moment, we knew it was a Macedonian call ringing very loud. Ever since then, we have been laboring in that community and the Lord has been doing great things both in that community and in our lives.

I want to invite you to join the chariot of the Exceeding Great Army the Lord is raising. Don't belittle the rod in your hand. Jesus is still "let's move on to the other side". He needs to ride your boat. You are definitely the answer to the prayer of a community. Allow Jesus to use your boat. Don't be left behind. With Him, the future is bright and beautiful.

FINDING FULFILMENT IN MISSION Through TKP

My journey in missions began many years ago as an undergraduate student.

Outreaches, retreats, and conferences were not just activities for me — they were a delight. They stirred my heart for God and for people.

To the glory of God, through THE KINGDOM PROJECTS (TKP), I have been equipped as a Tentmaker.

The foundation and intermediate training I received through TKP have enabled me to effectively combine my secular vocation as a Lecturer and Architect with global missions.

Through TKP Missions, I have had the privilege of leading TLC Outreaches, participating in cross-cultural missions, and mobilizing others to get involved in the work of the Kingdom.

Today, my family and I are finding true fulfilment in missions. TKP has given us both a platform and a conviction — t h a t wherever we are, whatever we do, we can serve God and advance His agenda.

Happy 30th Anniversary to TKP! Greater Grace in Jesus' Name.

ARC. OLADAYO POPOOLA, MNIA

It was through TLC that I discovered the Great Commission is real, doable, and easy to fulfill. Many people truly need the Gospel and are waiting for someone to preach to them. The Bible says in Romans, "How can they believe unless they hear it?" TLC is the platform that allows us to easily fulfill this verse. It enables us to go to remote areas to minister and touch lives for Christ. One of the particularities of TLC is that it enables all Christians, regardless of social status, to be involved in the Great Commission. It facilitates and simplifies the Great Commission for the elderly, young people, adults, teenagers—in short, every Christian—so they can contribute to building and advancing the Kingdom. This is something that has always impressed me about TLC. I remember this mummy whose prayer life was transformed by participating in various prayer and intercession programs to prepare and organize the evangelistic outreach. This is one of the advantages of being part of a large family like TLC.

Mrs. Nadine AGUEDIA

I have been part of the organizing committee of TLC in Douala since 2020. Three years ago, in December 2023, we worked in a village called Ba-Jedu, a very hostile village to Christianity. We faced several challenges before the program could hold that year, but the counsel of God prevailed at last and a church was planted. Many strongholds were brought down and many village idols were destroyed. Many elders and guardians of the tradition accepted the Lord as their savior. We are still laboring in that village to make the church stand. We trust the Lord for more testimonies and resources to make the church grow. I am grateful to God for the privilege to serve God through TLC.

Evangelizing has always been a passion for me. Several years ago, when Bro Aggée Boubet shared the vision with me, I said, "I can only provide financial support". I didn't have time because of my job description, and my employer wasn't cooperating at all. In 2021, it was pressing in my heart to join the team to go and evangelize. I prayed about it and asked for favor from my boss at work. Few days later, the Lord turned a situation around in the office that favored me and I was released. I was able to join the brethren for evangelism. Throughout the program, I was happy to serve God and that, through me, people came to know Him. Every trip undertaken on this great mission has always been a moment when I realize that there is no greater or more beautiful work than bringing a life to Christ. May the Lord bless the bearer of this vision and all those involved?

TLC opened our eyes to the importance of the mission the Lord entrusted to us, particularly the sacrifice involved in the work, the joy of sharing, and witnessing souls being saved, delivered from ancestral practices, and following Christ. I have always been touched and I always marvel at the mobilization of people from all denominations, coming together to reach out and touch lives; it is truly wonderful. This is the Lord's doing. Through TLC I witnessed the real joy of the unity in Christ. After each year, we keep receive testimonies of the growth of churches and members are always motivated to participate in the outreach. We bless the Lord for His work through TLC.

TLC's vision is very impactful and fruitful.

Transforming a historical event (Christmas) into a tool for communion, evangelism, and reaching out to those most in need, bringing them not only the word of God but also accompanying it with action.

We spent a considerable amount of time not understanding the spiritual potential that could be explored and energized on that date, but thanks to the constant encouragement of Bro. Aggee from Cameroon, we were able to carry out this activity in just a few years. Through TLC, we now have a church planted in a very remote area.

MY JOURNEY WITH THE KINGDOM PROJECTS (TKP)

I joined The Kingdom Projects (TKP) in 2014 as a volunteer. It did not take long for me to realize that this was truly my calling. Over the years, I became increasingly convinced that God was leading me into full-time missionary service. Although I hesitated for a while, I eventually surrendered and began the process of leaving my previous engagements.

In October 2022, I officially joined TKP full-time and was posted to Kpanshegu village to serve as a missionary teacher. Despite facing significant challenges that same month—including an accident and the loss of my dear mother I soon realized that the Lord had a greater purpose for my life on the mission field.

By the grace of God, less than a year into my missionary service, a brother who joined TKP through my influence proposed to me. After prayer, waiting on the Lord, and receiving counsel from the TKP leadership, we got married on 6th April 2024.

Today, my husband and I serve together as missionary teachers.

Through TKP, I have had the privilege of serving God, impacting the lives of children through teaching, and finding a life partner along the way. Above all, I have found inner peace. I remain profoundly grateful to God for this journey.

FROM THE CLASSROOM TO THE MISSION FIELD: MY JOURNEY AS A TENT-MAKING MISSIONARY IN UGANDA

If anyone had told me years ago that I would become a missionary, I would have disagreed. Like many people, I believed missionaries were only those called to leave their families and serve in distant lands. I never imagined that God would use my profession as a university lecturer to fulfil His mission. Looking back, I can truly testify that “a man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps” (Proverbs 16:9).

By God's divine orchestration, I left Nigeria for Uganda, where I joined The Kingdom Projects (TKP) as a Tent-Making Missionary while serving as a lecturer at Kampala International University. It was there that God redefined my understanding of missions. I discovered that the mission field is not confined to villages or church buildings. It can begin in a classroom, a university campus, an office, or wherever God strategically places His people. Like Esther, I realised that God positions us “for such a time as this” (Esther 4:14).

Through TKP, I have been privileged to minister to students, educators, families, and communities across Uganda and beyond through initiatives such as From Campus to the World, Touching Lives at Christmas, the Fellowship of African Christian Teachers, Missionary Experience and Exposure, personal evangelism, discipleship, and leadership development. These experiences have taught me that the Great Commission is not limited to the pulpit. Every lecture, conversation, and professional engagement can become an opportunity to reflect Christ and advance His Kingdom.

This journey has also transformed my family. God has faithfully provided for our needs, opened unexpected doors, connected us with lifelong partners in ministry, and shaped our identity around His Kingdom purposes. What began as a professional assignment has become a lifelong calling. As TKP celebrates thirty years of God's faithfulness, I remain grateful for the privilege of serving wherever He sends me, encouraged by the promise that “those who turn many to righteousness shall shine like the stars forever and ever” (Daniel 12:3).

One truth now defines my journey and remains my testimony:

Trusting God is a good risk.

Yours in His Grip,

FINDING PEACE AND PURPOSE:

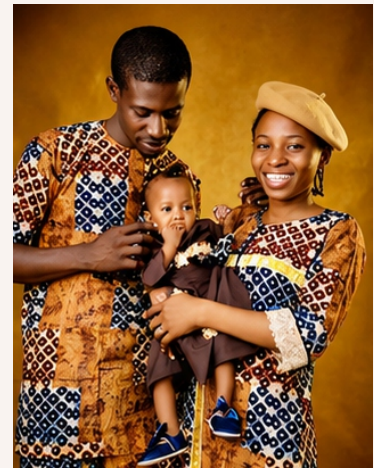

My Journey with The Kingdom Projects Ministry

Leaving Ilorin for my NYSC in the year 2019. I was resolved never to look back. I wanted a complete fresh start wherever my posting will be, hoping to easily build new connections. Little did I know that God had a better plan for me. By early 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic shattered my plans, leaving me overwhelmed with a demanding private school job and little time for God. Desperate for a place of true worship and a chance to pour into young children, I cried out to God for divine direction.

Heaven answered through a WhatsApp flyer for missionary teachers with the Kingdom Projects Ministry (TKP). I was so happy when I received my appointment letter on the 6th of November, 2020. Stepping onto the mission field (Okutala field) as a single woman brought an unexplainable peace, but it also brought a storm of family criticism. Well-meaning loved ones doubted my future, asking who would ever marry a missionary "posted into the bush" when city ladies were already struggling to find husbands.

Instead of listening to the noise, I locked my eyes on God, seeking first His kingdom and throwing myself into deeper intimacy with Him. I trusted Him completely with my marital life—and He exceeded every expectation! A few years later, right through The Kingdom Projects Ministry, God connected me to my spouse. Today, we are blessed with a beautiful daughter, and even my family marvels at God's faithfulness. Taking that bold step of obedience was the greatest decision of my life, and TKP remains an unshakable pillar in my story till today.

MRS. BLESSING AMOLE

TKP Missionary Staff,
ANPS Okuta Ala, Kwara State, Nigeria.

Looking back on my journey in The Kingdom Project fills my heart with gratitude. What began as a desire to serve has grown into years of learning, growth, and meaningful experiences. I joined, through Touching Lives at Christmas in 2013 and from there became a volunteer with a passion for mission work and a willingness to contribute in any way I could. At the time, I never imagined how much the journey would shape my life.

Over the years, I had the privilege of participating in various outreach activities, supporting mission work, and helping to mobilize people and welfare materials for rural missions and Mobilization Offices. One of the most memorable seasons was serving as a missionary teacher in akufu mission field. Various experiences taught me resilience, compassion, and the importance of faithful service.

In 2022, I was employed as a staff member, marking a new chapter in my journey. The transition from volunteer to staff gave me greater opportunities to contribute to the vision of the organization. Working alongside dedicated colleagues has strengthened my faith, expanded my skills, and deepened my commitment to God's work.

The Kingdom Project has been more than a workplace to me; it has been a place of growth, mentorship, and purpose. To the Glory of God, I joined as a single but the Lord as blessed me with a family who is also part of the Mission which has always been my prayers from inception. As we celebrate 30 years of God's faithfulness, I am grateful to have been part of this remarkable story. I look forward to seeing even greater impact in the years ahead and remain committed to serving with excellence and humility.

PASTOR TEMITOPE SOETAN

TKP Prayer Chaplain/Coordinator, TKP Australia.

My involvement with TKP is a story of divine ordering of steps. I became involved with TKP missions while I was a student, and since then, the Lord has opened my eyes to the limitless possibilities of missions. I have been privileged to serve God in various roles within TKP missions and currently serve as the Prayer Chaplain and TKP Missions Coordinator in Australia. These roles have deepened my relationship with God and enriched my experience of Him. As the Prayer Chaplain, I not only seek God for myself but also seek His guidance on the prayer issues He wants the TKP global family to bring before Him each day, each month, and in every season of the year. This divine opportunity for service has brought me closer to God and helped me understand His purpose for my life in this end time.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

on serving in The Kingdom Projects

Serving in The Kingdom Project has been a life-changing journey that has strengthened my relationship with God and deepened my understanding of ministry. During my mission trip to Nigeria, Uganda and Rwanda, I had the opportunity to participate in some of the outreach activities with my husband, such as Touching Life At Christmas (TLC), and also taught at TKP missionary schools in Akufo and Okutala.

Through serving others and participating in outreach activities, I have learned that true fruitfulness comes from abiding in Christ rather than relying on my own abilities.

A passage that has greatly impacted me is Luke 10:38–42, the story of Mary and Martha. While Martha was busy with many tasks, Mary sat at the Lord's feet, listening to what He taught. Jesus said that Mary had discovered the one thing worth being concerned about, and it would not be taken away from her. This challenged me to reflect on my own life.

Serving in TKP has helped me understand God's purpose for my life. My involvement in missions through TKP has deepened my relationship with God. I have learnt to sit at Jesus' feet, seek His purpose, and understand the one thing He is expecting from me.

A Journey of Purpose Driven Life

In 2008, God ordered my step into TKP Head office through Late Mr. Ishiaku (a Senior in the Printing Industry). I was a student at Unilorin and he introduced me to Director (a loving father from get go). I became part of the work fold in the mission handling printing work. This is a major early identification of the grace of God upon my life where my gifting was given a major platform for expression and I've grown to become a solution to many in the print industry in Nigeria and beyond as CEO of Infomax Consults. Thank you dear beloved brother Lanre in Directors voice. Thank you Sir for always believing in me and standing by me through these years. The picture beside was taken during the final burial right for my mum. She usually open the gate for me those late night designs working to have the publication ready. Thank you for saying yes to the Lord Sir. I'm blessed to see God's kind of life through you. TKP...on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. Keep on flourishing in Jesus name. Amen. Congratulations on the 30th Anniversary of TKP

A Journey of PURPOSE AND TRANSFORMATION

Serving with The Kingdom Projects International (TKP) has been one of the greatest privileges and most transformative experiences of my life. Looking back on my journey, I can confidently say that TKP has not only given me opportunities to serve but has also shaped my understanding of God's purpose for my life and His heart for the nations. As Zonal Coordinator in Ibadan, Oyo State, I have witnessed God's faithfulness in remarkable ways. Every outreach, discipleship engagement, prayer gathering, and kingdom assignment has become an opportunity to demonstrate Christ's love and participate in His redemptive work among people. Though mission work has often come with limited resources, demanding schedules, and uncertainty, those moments have revealed God's faithfulness most clearly. One of the greatest joys of this journey has been watching ordinary believers rise to embrace their God-given assignments with extraordinary zeal. What began as an opportunity to serve has become a deeply transformative experience. TKP is no longer just an organization to me; it is a family of kingdom-minded co-laborers united by an eternal vision—to know God and make Him known among the nations. As TKP celebrates 30 years of God's faithfulness, I celebrate a ministry that has invested in people, raised laborers for the harvest, and remained committed to advancing God's Kingdom among the nations. I believe the next chapter of this story will be written by believers who are willing to say, "Here am I, send me." Whether in the workplace, campus, neighborhood, or mission field, every believer has a place in God's mission. My prayer is that the next 30 years of TKP will be marked by surrendered lives, burning hearts for the nations, and countless testimonies of transformed communities as we faithfully carry the Gospel across generations, communities, and nations.

To God alone be all the glory.

THE PLANTING OF THE CREATOR

The Omniscient and Omnipotent released a seed into His vessel.

This seed was caught, comprehended, guarded, and nurtured, Three decades past, when the eyes of others Could finally behold what had sprung forth: a magnificent plant.

Like a mustard seed—once so small, but now so vast—Its branches reach toward the universe, Nourishing an infinite multitude with its fruit. Upon its boughs, birds build their nests, learning to fly Higher into the sky and farther into the expanse.

The alternating moments of light and shadow pass, never stagnant, All serving the welfare and growth of this mighty creature.

The sun shines upon it to grant energy, not to scorch.

The wind blows to help it shed the necessary leaves,

Strengthening the branches as more fruit is produced.

What a beautiful creation from the great Creator!

May this tree continue to grow deeper within, Rising taller and stronger with even greater fruit, Ever more beautiful in its unfolding.

KEMI ALABI

The remembrance of the faithfulness and the mercy of God over the past 30 years occasioned this celebration, even with a heartfelt gratitude to God Almighty - the giver of all that's beautiful and lifelong. May God keep prospering this mission as its impacts continue to spread both in Nigeria and overseas, even as we look forward to more anniversaries of a greater magnitude.

A short story about my experience while serving with the TKP.

I give glory to God that I was opportuned to come in contact with the TKP ministry in the year 2002 through brother Tope Fagbemi (a younger brother to Lwy Pastor David B Fagbemi), at the RCCG, freedom parish Sango area, Ilorin, now ppp basin area Ilorin. Since then, I have encountered God in a very special way in every area of my life.

Time will not permit me to share stories but all I can say is that it pays to serve the Lord. I'm equally very grateful for the opportunity to serve God in my own little way. Thanks, and God bless you all.

MY PERSONAL EXPERIENCES IN TKP.

To the glory of God the Almighty, I join the train of The Kingdom Projects (TKP) in the year 2017 as a Volunteer Missionary Teacher and was posted to Akufo mission field in the month of March, 2017.

Actually, I got to know about TKP through my immediate younger brother who is a perpetual TLC participant, and I was inspired to be a Missionary Teacher with TKP after scanning through the "Joy to the World" magazine which my brother brought after TLC 2016.

I had fantastic experiences and encounter on the mission field. I joined other missionary teachers in teaching the pupils at Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School in Akufo village; we as well practice evangelism within Akufo and the neighboring villages, ministering to children, teenagers, adult and aged.

My most happiest moment and experience was participating in MEE 2017 which was my First MEE. It was so wonderful presenting the gospel to the Barubas, learning new language, witnessing the move of God among the Barubas especially the Fulanis in that community.

According to God's plan and divine instruction, I stepped up my commitment from a Volunteer to a Staff of TKP and it became more interesting. As God wishes, I met my husband in TKP (at the mission field precisely) and we are both blessed with two pretty princesses; proclaiming Christ and doing exploit in His Vineyard, locally and globally.

Hallelujah! Our God is great!

God bless TKP!

My personal Experience while serve in TKP

A call to serve is indeed a call to be blessed and become a blessing. This is my experience when called to serve at the Ambassador Medical center Elebu which is arm of Ambassador Medical Missions of TKP.

Ambassador Medical center Elebu is sited in a rural setting dominated by Muslims and surrounded by Fulani settlements

The strategy of having a center here is to minister the gospel of Jesus Christ by rendering medical services.

I visited this center weekly to encourage the missionary. Dr and Nurses residing there joining hands together in mission as we attended to patients. Our services gave opportunity to share the gospel with clients who would have naturally resisted because of their religion but coming for medical treatment they patiently listened as we explain the way of salvation through Jesus to them. Only eternity will tell when we see these ones in glory for I believe some must have become secret disciples of Christ.

Realizing the stronghold of the enemy where this Facility is sited, it provokes us to pray at least one hour each of the day I visited, praying for our work, the community and TKP Mission.

We had many successes in our health management though few deliveries but with safe mothers and babies.

Volunteer Dr and Nurses that served that period were blessed and still remain blessed till now as I still relate with some of them till now. A life given to God is not a waste

Few hours of journey weekly to the centre, moment of Intercessory prayers, rendering medical services were source of inspiration to me.

Though Retired from Government it was an appointment and Employment while I still have my strength and I thank God for the Privilege.

MORE THAN A MINISTRY: FINDING PURPOSE THROUGH TKP

Some journeys begin with a simple decision that changes everything. For me, that journey began when I joined The Kingdom Projects (TKP) with a desire to grow in faith and serve God's Kingdom. What I discovered was far more than a ministry, it became a family, a mission, and a lifelong calling.

Through TKP, I have had the privilege of serving in communities, campuses, and across nations, witnessing lives transformed by the Gospel. Walking with students, mentoring young leaders, and partnering with believers from different countries has not only impacted those we served but has also transformed my own life.

Serving as the National Coordinator for Uganda has been one of the greatest blessings of this journey. It has taught me that true leadership is rooted in humility and service. Every conference, mission outreach, discipleship program, and prayer gathering reflects the dedication of ordinary people who believe that one changed life can influence a family, a community, and a nation.

As TKP celebrates 30 years of God's faithfulness, I celebrate the privilege of being part of this remarkable story.

Looking back, I see that every challenge, sacrifice, and step of faith has revealed God's unfailing grace. My journey with TKP has shown me that when ordinary people say "yes" to God, He accomplishes extraordinary things. With gratitude and great expectation, I believe the next chapter of TKP will inspire many more young people to rise, serve, and carry the hope of Christ to the nations.

OSCAR OLWEDO

TKP National Coordinator, Uganda

For a long time, the Fodaru Fulani community was hard to reach. They are often cautious of outsiders. But after MEE 2025 God began to move: After MEE 2025 God opened the greatest door through an act of love and service. When the village king and his grandson needed hernia surgery, we (TKP) took them to the hospital, stayed with them, and covered all the expenses needed for the surgery. To the glory of God the surgery was successful. Though the king did not live long after the surgery We also assisted Mr. Yusuf (one of the respected man in the village) wife with little resources to start Koko and akara business. God really bless that business and it flourished. The village washed, they expected nothing. We also spend time visiting their cattle camps, farms and showing respect for their culture. We shared stories of Jesus healing and providing. many started asking questions. Because of that:

- Trust was built

- The king gave permission for us to teach and pray in the village.

- Barriers came down - People who were closed to the gospel started coming to ask for prayer.

- Through prayer: We prayed consistently that God would prepare their hearts.

- Result: Several Fulani families are now attending Bible studies. Some have put their faith in Christ and are being discipled. They begin to bring their charms to be destroyed.

- God is breaking years of resistance. Hallelujah!!!

demonic oppression.

- A Several women are delivered from spiritual husband.

- A woman was brought all away from Gogounou for demonic possession and God delivered here.

Conclusion & Prayer Requests

God is moving among the Fulani and at Fodaru Village. Hearts are opening, homes are being restored, and bodies are being healed.

Please pray with us for:

1. Continued openness of the Fulani to the gospel
2. Discipleship for new believers so they stand firm
3. More opportunities to minister healing and share Jesus

DESIGNED FOR PERFECT FULFILMENT

For two reasons — the scarcity of light bearers and my subtle lifestyle — I was kept away from the light of the gospel for many years.

My first encounter with the gospel was a few days after graduating from secondary school in 2009. Many of the Christian teachers I met during my primary and secondary school days were committed to their work, but they lacked passion for lost souls. However, there were a few — about 5% — who had that passion. They were deceived by my quiet, subtle lifestyle and assumed I was a Christian, when I was not.

When I left the university, I carried a burden: to give to others what no one had given to me. For months, I did this with fear and pressure while working for non-missionary private employers who were Christians.

My resumption at Ambassadors Nursery and Primary School in January 2023 marked the beginning of my fulfillment. Under TKP, I now serve in a fear-free and pressure-free atmosphere.

TKP provides a platform where young ones are being prepared for the transformation of society, with full support for the teachers.

MY MINISTRY JOURNEY WITH The Kingdom Projects

My name is Wabuyere Paul Joel, a Ugandan National and missionary staff of The Kingdom Projects serving in East Africa, Uganda, to be precise. It's now eight full years down the road since I was recruited and added to this glorious, pure, and undiluted missionary army for lasting impact.

My duration with TKP has been a season of missionary exposure and experience through various outreaches and missionary journeys with in and outside East Africa.

Through TKP,

1. I have been, and am still being trained and equipped for Kingdom expansion through our various ministry training arms,
2. Am an outreach coordinator and an administrator at the regional office in Uganda,

3. I have been a goer to a number of fields and participated in the evangelisation of souls, for we have quite a number of souls we have won into the Kingdom of God,

4. TKP is an avenue through which I am utilizing my day time, for the night is coming when I will not be able to work,
5. Like our Father in the Lord is fond of saying, I am matching on, and the future is very bright.

Blessings!!!

WABUYERE PAUL JOEL
Missionary Staff, TKP Uganda.

I FOUND MY PLACE IN THE MUSTARD SEED.

Working with The Kingdom Projects has been profoundly impactful. I have come to recognize TKP as a mustard seed planted by God. Under this tree, many have found refuge, and nations continue to be reached with the gospel.

I am grateful to God for the privilege to serve through this platform. Through TKP, I have engaged in the work of missions, reaching communities and proclaiming the Word of God. Serving as a missionary under The Kingdom Projects has brought fulfillment and joy beyond measure.

TKP has given me not only the opportunity to serve, but also a clear sense of purpose. It is raising kingdom ambassadors committed to discipleship and transformation.

As we celebrate 30 years of God's faithfulness, I am honored to be part of this great commission. My prayer is that this mustard seed will continue to grow, and that generations to come will find refuge and purpose in Christ through TKP.

To God be all the glory.

TKP BENIN REPUBLIC

It's an interesting and joyful thing to write this piece on what God is doing through TKP missions in the country, Benin Republic. Through the grace of God, TKP gained access to Benin Republic in the year 2009 via an outreach called FESTIVAL OF MERCY; and from there on God has been breathing on our little efforts to advance His Kingdom among both the students in secondary and tertiary institutions, villages and the body of Christ across the country. God is so much helping TKP Benin Republic in diverse ways to carry out her mandate among the Beninoise such as: Campus Evangelism and Discipleship among the secondary and tertiary schools students. This labour among the students is really bringing immense increase to the advancement of God's Kingdom here in Benin Republic; many labourers have been impacted through several campus programs and seminars and are doing great even beyond our widest imaginations. Some are coordinating TOUCHING LIVES AT CHRISTMAS (TLC) in various towns and cities across the country. Some are also missionaries and pastors with TKP and in their different denominations. So many Christian teachers across the country are also being blessed through TKP seminars and conference. As a result of God's work through TKP in Benin Republic, so many churches have been planted and are still in process across the country and many are being worked on by some of the interested churches in the country and some through TKP missionaries in different fields across the country. Presently, TKP Benin Republic comprises three missionary couples working in different locations across the country. We so much believe God for a more impactful, fruitful and abiding labour as we continue to advance His Kingdom in the country. GOD BLESS TKP BENIN! GOD BLESS TKP GLOBALLY.

PLANNING:

A VITAL FACTOR FOR SUCCESS

by AROKOYO
KAYODE PHILIP

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

To get a good understanding of the concept of planning, appreciate its importance and how to put it to use to enhance success in our undertakings.

INTRODUCTION

*"Any enterprise is built by wise planning, becomes strong through common sense, and profits wonderfully by keeping abreast of the facts." Pro 24:3-4 (TLB)

WHAT IS PLANNING?

Planning may be defined as deciding in advance what to do, how it is to be done, when it is to be done and by whom it is to be done.

Planning bridges the gap between where we are (present) and where we want to be (future).

Biblical Basis for Planning

- Jer. 29:11
- Pro 6:6-11
- Lk. 14:28-30

Pro 6:6-11

v6 "Go to the ant, you sluggard; consider its ways and be wise! v7 It has no commander, no overseer or ruler, v8 yet it stores its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest. v9 How long will you lie there, you sluggard? When will you get up from your sleep? v10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, v11 and poverty will come on you like a thief and scarcity like an armed man."

Lk. 14:28-30

v28 "Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won't you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? v29 For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, v30 saying, 'This person began to build and wasn't able to finish.'

Sitting to first count the cost (planning).

TYPES OF PLANNING

- ☐ Strategic Plan
- ☐ Tactical Plan
- ☐ Operational Plan
- ☐ Contingency Plan, etc.

IMPORTANCE OF PLANNING

- Gives direction.
- Basis for teamwork.
- Helps in proper resource utilization.
- Aids in decision making.
- Helps to track progress.
- Brings about success.

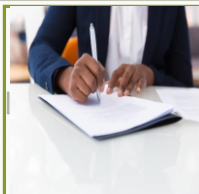

STEPS IN PLANNING

1. Set a goal.

*Set GOALS should be SMART

- ☐ Measurable
- ☐ Specific
- ☐ Achievable
- ☐ Relevant
- ☐ Time-bound

2. Write down the goal. (Hab. 2:2)

3. Develop a course of action.
4. Determine and allocate resources necessary to achieve the goal set.

5. Determine other things that you need to give up to achieve the goal set.

6. Undertake periodic Evaluation/ Review

OTHER ESSENTIALS IN PLANNING

☐ Prayer

"Commit your actions to the Lord, and your plans will succeed"

Pro 16:3 (NLT)

☐ Diligence

"The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty"

Pro 16:3 (NIV)

TKP-UK FAMILY:

A Living Testimony of

God's Faithfulness

DR. TAIWO ALIMI

TKP-UK is an extension of the mustard seed that God planted 30 years ago in Jos, Plateau State, Nigeria. By God's divine leading, this ministry arm was established in the United Kingdom in 2020 when the Lord relocated our family through an international career opportunity. As we left Nigeria, we carried a clear sense of God's mandate and purpose. The story of David and Goliath remained a strong encouragement in our hearts, reminding us that victory comes not by human strength but by the power of God.

Upon arriving in the UK, we immediately began the work of TLC. Despite the challenges of the COVID-19 lockdown, we held our first TLC programme in 2020 through a prayer walk. Since then, God has graciously expanded it, enabling TLC to be held annually and, by 2025, across six centres in the UK.

Through the leading of the Holy Spirit, TLC has been adapted to meet the needs of different communities. Over the years, outreach efforts have taken us to a university, care homes, city centres, hospitals, and door-to-door evangelism, sharing the love and message of Christ.

The Lord has also opened doors for other ministry opportunities, including Holiday Bible Studies for children, internet safety awareness programmes, and monthly prayer meetings focused on missions, which have continued faithfully since 2020.

Regarding our registration in the UK, we have successfully completed the initial stage and are currently progressing towards charitable status. We trust that, by God's grace, this will create greater opportunities for ministry and community impact.

Above all, we recognise that our sufficiency is not in ourselves but in Christ, who has made us ministers of the New Covenant (2 Corinthians 3:5-6). Therefore, we face the future with faith and confidence, believing God to establish TKP-UK as a mission hub that equips, sends, and supports labourers for His harvest field.

To anyone sensing God's call to begin a similar work where He has placed them, we encourage you to step out in faith and obedience. The God who gives the vision is faithful to provide the grace and strength needed to accomplish His purpose.

Taiwo Alimi serves as the Coordinator of TKP-UK. He is married to Sayo Alimi, and they are blessed with children.

NOT JUST STORIES OF WHAT PEOPLE HAVE DONE FOR GOD, BUT STORIES OF WHAT GOD HAS DONE THROUGH HIS PEOPLE

ESTHER ADEBAYO

I was the youngest participant in the first TLC outreach which took place in Kwara State. Eighty brethren participated, covering six villages, and the Brethren Forum was held in Ladabu Village. The Kingdom Project had already been operating as a mission organization before TLC began as its subsidiary.

Growing up, I did not merely hear about missions; I saw it, I lived it, and I became a part of it.

I saw:

- Missions become an integral part of our daily lives.
- Professionals willingly sacrifice their time, talents, skills, and resources for the advancement of God's Kingdom and the fulfilment of His global mission.
- Ordinary people make themselves available for God to use.
- People consecrate themselves to God, becoming His hands and feet and taking the Gospel into communities, schools, workplaces, and places where Christ needed to be heard and His love lived out.
- Missions supporters give sacrificially to advance the work of God.
- Senior citizens and retirees embrace intercession for missions as a way of life.

Jesus commanded:

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."
— Matthew 28:19–20

Today, as we celebrate thirty years of The Kingdom Projects, we celebrate far more than a milestone. We celebrate:

1. Thirty years of God's mercy and faithfulness.
2. Thirty years of obedience.

3. Thirty years of sacrifice.
4. Thirty years of Kingdom impact.
5. Countless lives touched and communities reached.
6. A harvest that has been gathered and continues to be gathered.
7. The men and women who gave their time, talents, resources, and energy to something greater than themselves.
8. Every prayer prayed, every journey undertaken, every life reached, every seed sown, and every sacrifice made for the sake of the Gospel.
9. And above all, we celebrate the faithfulness of God.

What began as a vision has, by God's grace, become a movement of Kingdom impact. Through the years, God has taken ordinary people, ordinary skills, and ordinary resources and used them to accomplish extraordinary and eternal things.

The story of TKP is therefore not merely a story of what people have done for God; it is a story of what God has done through people who made themselves available to Him.

As we look back with gratitude, we also look forward with faith. The God who has been faithful for thirty years remains faithful for all the years ahead. The harvest is still plentiful, the Great Commission still stands, and the call to Kingdom service remains as urgent as ever.

As Scripture reminds us:

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters."
— Colossians 3:23

Happy 30th Anniversary, The Kingdom Projects!

To God be all the glory for the things He has done—and for all He will yet do through those who make themselves available to Him.

A DIVINELY ORCHESTRATED CONNECTION

It's a great privilege and a pleasure for me to celebrate with The Kingdom Projects (TKP) 30 years of God's kindness and faithfulness.

I often tell people that I did not arrive at TKP by happenstance, that the connection was divinely orchestrated.

For some years, I had been feeling deep down within me that something was missing from our Christmas celebration, sharing with close brethren that I believe Christmas could be merrier. Merrier beyond "rice and stew very plenty" but in ways that would focus on Christ whose birthday we were presuming to celebrate. I felt that if He was truly our parent, we should celebrate Him the way we do our physical parents: invite others outside of the family, cater to them, tell them why we are celebrating that parent, the ways in which they have contributed to our success in life and so on.

Much as several of the brethren agreed with me, none of us had any concrete idea on how this could be achieved.

Then a young man in my church, Ayòkúnmi Òmótòşò invited me to one of the earlier editions of TLC. He shared the testimony of his participation the previous year and assured me I would have a time of "blessing and refreshing". He said it was his merriest Christmas ever, telling others about Christ on Christmas day.

Then when they were asked to invite others to that year's edition, his mind went to me. I eagerly accepted the invitation because I understood that wasn't a coincidence.

Dr. D.Y

My squad was sent to minister at Egbejila, then a motley collection of hamlets off Ilorin airport road, now a bustling quasi-metropolis where I eventually built a house and settled. This also is not a coincidence.

I testify that the Lord has helped my walk with Him tremendously through TKP: I have learnt the diverse ways through which we can share the love of Christ; I have been taught how to present the gospel in simple, clear terms and I have acquired on-the-job experience and made friends from various outreaches to neighboring countries.

The memories of Sera in Burkina Faso abide with me still, awesome. The dawning of light on the faces of people in this village in the midst of nowhere, as they hear that God in heaven loves them. Incredible! When I had opportunity to get involved in TKP work in Benin Republic, I volunteered and got involved in the Eglise des ambassadeurs (a church planted by TKP) in a village called Tanakpe, in December 2014.

Sis Shadé Ademola and I have maintained this tradition for the past decade or so, joining brethren in Tanakpe to celebrate TLC every December.

It's such a huge blessing to be a part of what God is doing in Baruba land through TKP. Our prayer is that we'll remain faithful followers and messengers of the only Word Who is mighty to save.

Happy 30th birthday to TKP. May the Lord move you forward and upward, in the name of Jesus.

For this God, is our God, for ever and ever; He will be our guide from now even unto the end

TLC IN BINGHAMTON

The Lord added to our number in a great way! We were only four in 2024, but in 2025, He added more people, including children, we even had a family drive almost an hour to join us. We spoke with people about Jesus, and it was such a wonderful opportunity. Once again, the joy of the Lord filled all of our hearts. It was especially joyful to see the excitement in the children as we shared the gospel. My pastor even suggested that we should start "Touching Lives at Easter" because an impact like this shouldn't only happen once a year.

USA FAMILY

Greetings from TKP USA

As The Kingdom Projects celebrates thirty years of God's faithfulness around the world, we in the United States send our warmest congratulations to the entire TKP family.

TKP USA is one of the newest branches on this thirty-year-old tree. We were formally registered in April 2025, and the year since has been one of quiet foundation-laying, the unglamorous work of beginnings that every TKP office once knew.

Our monthly prayer gatherings have grown steadily, and they remain the heartbeat of everything we do here. Mission partnerships are taking shape that we believe will widen our reach in the seasons ahead. This October, we will hold our Annual Mission Retreat in Newark, New Jersey, a time to seek the Lord together and get refreshed in His presence.

Thirty years is not our achievement to claim. But we are grateful to God for what He is doing through us, and we look forward to what He will do in the years ahead. Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to your name give glory, because of Your love and faithfulness - Psalm 115:1.

YOUR HEALTH:

A Product of

PARTNERSHIP WITH GOD

By: Dr David OlaOluwa Afolabi

Health and wellbeing is a crucial aspect of life on earth which none of us can afford to take for granted. No doubt, it takes sound health to do mission work effectively. While some beloved brothers and sisters in Christ presume that God is absolutely responsible for keeping them in sound health, others tend to depend solely on medical science and their own efforts to restore or maintain their health. Could either of these attitudes be consistent with the truth regarding wholeness contained in the Holy Scriptures? It is very important and helpful for each of us to gain and deploy a balanced perspective of healthy living and its requirements in order to fulfil our God ordained purposes in this life.

The incontrovertible truth is that healthy living is a product of partnership between the Almighty God and man, just like it is in other aspects of life and ministry (1 Corinth.3:9; John 5:17). Although God is always willing and able to restore and sustain our health, He requires each of us to collaborate effectively with Him in accomplishing this. Therefore with respect to healing and health, you and I need to see ourselves correctly - as active partners with God, not passive receivers. In other words, as we consistently play our role as “junior partner” and God plays His role as “Senior partner” healing and health manifests in our lives.

God's responsibilities in His “Senior partner” role are numerous and indispensable. They are those things we cannot do for ourselves which He has done and continues to do regarding our health. These include supernatural activities such as:

- sending Jesus Christ to suffer and die for our sin and its consequences including sicknesses and diseases (Isaiah 53:4-5; Matthew 8:16-17; 1 Peter 2:24-25)
- Making and keeping promises concerning our health and wholeness. (Numbers 23:19; 2 Peter 1:4; 1 Corinth.1:20; Jeremiah 1:12; Exodus 23:25-26; Isaiah 58:8; Jeremiah 33:6; 3 John 2)
- Sending His word to heal us and uphold our health. Psalm 107:20; Hebrews 1:3
- Working through gifts of the Spirit such as the gifts of healings, the gift of special faith, and working of miracles. (1 Corinth.12:7-10)
- Sending human agents (including healthcare professionals) to minister healing and health to us

Similarly, you and I have non-transferable responsibilities in our role as “junior partners”. They are those health-related things which God expects each individual to do for themselves consistently, being faithful stewards. These include natural activities such as:

- Eating balanced diet and drinking adequate amounts of water (nutrition responsibility)
- Moving the body regularly and adequately (exercise responsibility)
- Taking time to rest and sleep well (rest and sleep responsibility)
- Taking precautions to prevent illness and accidents (prevention responsibility)
 - adopting health-protecting habits / lifestyle e.g personal and environmental hygiene, regular medical check-up, getting vaccinated, seeking and adhering to sound medical advice, use of seat belt when driving, crash helmet when riding, etc
 - avoiding health-damaging habits / lifestyle e.g self-medication, over-eating, smoking, alcoholism etc

In conclusion, partnership is key in healthy living. In this imbalanced partnership, each of us must keep working just as God is working on our health (John 5:17). You cannot play God's supernatural part and God will not play your natural part. We need to avoid the mistake of presumption disguised as “faith” which makes us neglect our own responsibilities. Many health problems and crises that believers face can be traced to neglecting or abandoning their own role either deliberately or inadvertently.

As soldiers in God's exceedingly great army, we will certainly experience His faithfulness and wonders in our health if we choose to cooperate and responsibly partner with God.

HAVE YOU PRAYED FOR TKP HEADQUARTERS TODAY?

As we celebrate the 30th anniversary of TKP, I feel like asking you if it has become your custom to pray for the headquarters.

Behind every outreach, missionary deployment, mission project, report, strategic decision, and field activity is a team engaging in some brain tasking and energy sapping activities. They plan, coordinate, communicate, make decisions, pray and labour to solve problems, provide operational support, and ensure that the assignment is carried out with excellence—an excellence that remains paramount in the heart of the International Director. These people at the headquarters see your success as their success, so they are always neck-deep into activities going on in various TKP fields and offices.

Not everyone involved in this coordination is physically stationed at the Headquarters. The Prayer Chaplain is resident in Australia. The International Director of Training is resident in Canada. The Administrator is in Lagos. Different locations. Different responsibilities. One assignment. These and other leaders are always connected through constant communication, praying together and continuous collaboration.

An admirable dimension to this matter which I must not forget to mention is that in the midst of all these flurry of activities, the International Director still makes room for people.

We travel miles—even to distant Bodinga in Niger

State—to celebrate a colleague's wedding. Within the space of just a few months, he was in Oyo town again for another wedding. We celebrate birthdays, rejoice over milestones, and show up for one another. TKP is indeed a family. You need to see how we sing and celebrate the senior citizens who attend the daily RBNT Prayer meeting whenever any of them is celebrating birthday.

So, I ask you again, have you prayed for TKP Headquarters today?

People who carry responsibilities that may never appear in a report or on a stage.

People who pray for others in the organization.

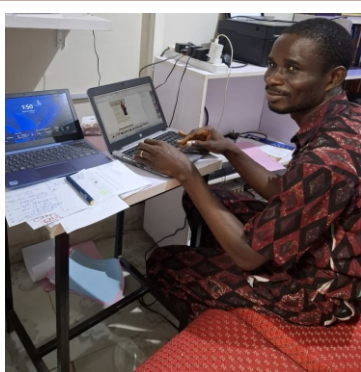

People who plan and prepare for programs which is not within their environment.

People who communicate across borders.

People who make difficult decisions and ensure that the machineries of the mission are moving.

Who joined us this Year

HAPPY 30TH ANNIVERSARY.

I got to know about THE KINGDOM PROJECT in year 2017. I was driving along Police Post Odo-Ona along I.A.R.T. CAMPUS. I saw a big TKP BANNER. My Mind told me to park and read. I invited 4 friends but only one joined me Mr Bunmi Idowu. I chose to be attending the MONDAYS PRAYER MEETINGS while he attends on TUESDAYS 12 noon-1pm at ODO-ONA IBADAN SOUTH.

My Heart was stirred up that as a RETIRED BUT NOT TIRED NURSE I should join the TOUCHING LIVES ON CHRISTMAS OUTREACH which comes up on 25th December. I am a LAYREADER in ANGLICAN CHURCH and I take permission to be excuse yearly. I joined the MEDICAL TEAM. I was encouraged when I saw my snr. Colleague Mrs Lasaki who is much older than me.

My advice to we Christian Retirees is to continue working for God who is our strength. An aged Mama Salami who is 80+ old still attends Programmes and yearly TLC. Let us EMULATE MOSES and JOSHUA who worked for God to their OLD AGE. God will continue to give us the UNCTION TO FUNCTION in sound good health in Jesus Name Amen.

I also joined the Financial group no matter small token and God bless me with Testimonies. Our International Director Pastor Olusola Adebayo pray when Acknowledged payments.

TKP Projects will continue to March on from glory to greater glory and the gate of hell will not prevail over it in Jesus Name Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!!!!!.

RETIRED BUT NOT TIRED (RBNT) AN OPEN DOOR FOR SENIOR CITIZENS TO SERVE GOD TO THE END

I first came across Retired But Not Tired (RBNT), one of the arms of The Kingdom Projects (TKP) almost two decades ago through a flier distributed in my church. Being a retiree myself and also a child of God by His grace, my heart was drawn towards the program, and I decided to attend. I continued attending in subsequent years, but due to some family challenges, I could not be fully committed in pronto. Eventually, I joined the weekly intercessory meetings. There, I met more elderly retirees and senior citizens who made concerted efforts to attend the meetings, which at that time was being held upstairs of a two storey building. I noticed that the prayers were not "give me, give me" type but rather were kingdom oriented - soul salvation and expansion of God's kingdom, which is His heartbeat. I was greatly challenged, and it made me determine to increase my commitment. Ever since, there has been no regret, and the assignment has been greatly rewarding.

Retirees and senior citizens who are believers in the Lord Jesus should realise that there's no retirement in Kingdom service. We can take a cue from Biblical saints like Moses, Caleb, Simeon, and Anna, the prophetess We should be intentional to keep serving, continue using our gifts maximally, and remain productive for God investing the rest of our lives for Kingdom purpose. We should key into God's promise in Ps 92 vs 14 - *They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing.

The hymn writer Eli G. Christy penned these words down to encourage us:

It pays to serve Jesus I speak from my heart.

He'll always be with us if we do our part.

There's nought in this wide world can pleasure afford.

There's peace and contentment in serving the Lord.

SPECIAL GREETINGS AND WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE KINGDOM PROJECT (TKP) AT 30

I want to thank the Lord, God Almighty for His Goodness and Mercies that had seen TKP through the 30 years of its existence and ministry engagements on the Great Commission Kingdom agenda.

I also congratulate my beloved Sola and Funmi who have been God's instruments in shaping and fostering the outstanding activities that have distinctively earmarked TKP.

Like Habakkuk was told in chapter 2 verse 2 of his book to "Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald^a may run with it", that was exactly what the Adebayos did (and have continued to do over the years). No wonder then there is a large company of believers who have embraced the TKP vision and have been running with it all this while. To these Kingdom believers, I also say well done and congrats for being part of the significant stories which mark the 30 years of TKP impactful mission!

Occasions like this afford us an opportunity to do the following:

1. REMEMBER! Reflect on the beginning. Review how far the Lord has taken you in the journey. Recollect all that the Lord has done, Recollect the times and seasons that have transpired, the mountain and valley experiences it has taken to get this far! Reminisce on the favours and victories the Lord has wrought. Record and rehearse such to hearing of the upcoming generations so that they too can put trust in the Lord (Psalm 78:1-7). It is an occasion to celebrate the past and recast the vision for the future.
2. REJOICE! Joyous Celebration attributes to God the glory due to Him as we recount the marvelous things He has done. It is like the children of Israel did after crossing the Red Sea as they escaped the horrors of slavery in Egypt and survived the pursuit of the vicious army of the Egyptians which perished in the Red Sea through which the Lord protected them and guaranteed a safe passage. This celebration was vividly captured in Exodus 15:1-21, recounting the wonderful things the Lord had done to bring them to that stage of their journey, as summarized by Miriam in verse 21 thus: "Sing to the Lord, for he is highly exalted. Both horse and driver he has hurled into the sea." [NIV].
3. RENEW! TKP's thirty-year journey is just a fraction of the whole journey. Crossing the Red Sea was just a beginning for the children of Israel because there were still the desert, the hostile tribes, the mountains and hills, and River Jordan ahead to overcome. The Lord kept urging them to press on, renewing their commitment to fully accomplish the mission for which the Lord brought them out of Egypt and leading them to the promised land.

For TKP, this is an opportunity to renew our commitment to OBEDIENCE, DEPENDENCE, AUTHENTICITY, and BUILDING ON THE PATTERN THAT WE HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE LORD. Not copying wholesale from what others might be doing, not comparing ourselves with others, not envying others, but totally relying on the Lord who is the Author and Finisher of the vision we have received!

4. RE-LAUNCH! On their journey to the promised land after Joshua had succeeded Moses, the Lord helped Israel to review how far they had gone on their journey in Joshua Chapter 12 showing a very impressive record of achievements. In chapter 13:1, the Lord charged Joshua thus "When Joshua had grown old, the Lord said to him, "YOU ARE NOW VERY OLD, AND THERE ARE STILL VERY LARGE AREAS OF LAND TO BE TAKEN OVER." In Joshua 18:1-10, Joshua took seriously this charge and initiated a move that ensured that the remaining portions of the places to be taken are determined through commissioned survey and portioned out among the remaining 9 and half tribes of Israel who were yet to get their own allotments. He relaunched the campaign to focus on the unconquered and yet to be possessed lands. The mission of TKP is like the mission of Gideon and his 300 processed and select soldiers out of the 32,000 volunteers in the beginning. The Bible described the great feat the Lord used them to accomplish even though they were few in number but was disciplined and determined army. It was said of them in Judges 8:4 that "Gideon and his three hundred men, exhausted yet keeping up the pursuit, came to the Jordan and crossed it". May this be the testimony about TKP in the years ahead.

May I round up this message with this song we usually sing in the days of yore:

KEEP ME TRUE, LORD JESUS KEEP ME TRUE
KEEP ME TRUE, LORD JESUS KEEP ME TRUE
THERE IS A RACE THAT I MUST RUN, THERE ARE VICTORIES TO BE WON
GIVE ME POWER EVERY HOUR TO BE TRUE

Once again, Congratulations, TKP!

KEEP THE BANNER FLYING

REVD S.O. OLADEJO,

Rtrd Pioneer Pastor in charge,
Chapel Of Redemption UMCA,
Gaa Akanbi Ilorin, Kwara State, Nigeria.

Calvary greetings to you all in Jesus precious name. I give glory and praise to God and count it a great honour to be asked to make this little noble contribution on this memorable occasion. Thanks be to God that things such as this is happening in my lifetime.

The Kingdom Projects (TKP) is one of the contemporary living Para-Church Organisms of our generation. Praise God! She is presently fulfilling the Great Commission of Christ (Mt 28:18-20.) outside the walls of Denominations and contemporary Church settings yet working through same to achieve this Heartbeat of God.

TKP is making and building Disciples for Christ's Kingdom through its numerous programmes and activities. Some of you maybe hearing or knowing this in details during this unique celebrations. Outstanding among them are; Touching Lives at Christmas; Retired but not tired; Establishing schools; Engaging professionals and retirees in making and discipling for Christ, sending new converts to be present churches, various local and international programmes, etc etc.

My first charge and encouragement to all staff and partners of TKP is to keep the banner flying because we are in the last days before the second coming of Christ, so that none of us will meet Christ empty handed or wasted. God is counting on us.

Secondly, I wish that all the mainline Denominations should please review their support policies to favourably give higher backing and financial encouragement to all Para-Church bodies like; TKP; GCMN; FCS; NIRES; Gideons Int'l; CARREM; CAPRO, etc etc, since no single Christian body can or is intended to fulfill the Great Commission alone.

Lastly, I humbly counsel more people irrespective of Denominational affiliations to use this Great opportunity of the 30th celebrations of TKP to join in partnership with this End-Time move of God to bring in an innumerable harvest of souls into Christ's Kingdom before our Lord, Saviour and Eternal King returns to take us home with Him.

Very BIG Congratulations and 30 hearty cheers and shouts of Hallelujah to God and TKP @ 30.

PRAISE YE THE LORD!

Signed-August 2026

FROM THE PROVOST, UMCA THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

Our partnership with TKP is God ordained and I pray the Lord continue to strengthen you all in Jesus Mighty Name.

REV'D DR. EBENEZER KAYODE

I have an unshakable believe that I'm living in the best of time in the history of mankind. This is hinged on the fact that I have the privilege of standing on the shoulder of those who have gone ahead of me in order to see farther than they did. Also, I have the privilege of seeing the fulfilment of those things prophesied by Isaiah and many others.

- Isaiah 60:8 Here Isaiah had a revelation of the Israelites returning back to the present-day Israel, flying Aircrafts. This came to pass in 1948, almost three thousand years after it was prophesied!

- Daniel 12:4 But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end, many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase. This prophecy talked about the computer and Information Technology that we are witnessing and enjoying today.
- Many of those men of faith we read about today had little or no examples to follow in their days. They were trail-blazers to the core. Today however, we have them as the cloud of witnesses Hebrew 12:1 talked about. They cheer us on in our race. Their victories stand as good examples for us to follow. Their failures warn us and guide us so we can avoid and escape pitfalls. Any young man under the pressure of sexual advances from any resemblance of Potiphar's wife would know what this can cost him if he should yield. It could cost the throne. It could make inheriting the promise a mirage. The example of Joseph has been written down for our learning.

Unparalleled advantages:

With the complete Bible (Old and New Testament) at our fingertips, we stand at an unparalleled advantage in all of the history of human kind to harness to the maximum the blessings God has packaged for human race. We can read and understand where it all started where the world is now and where things are heading to.

Many prophets of old desire to experience the fulfilment of things the Spirit of Christ in them prophesied.

1 Peter 1.10

Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, searching what or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when HE testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.

Unparalleled Challenges:

We live at a time when the Bible says it will be difficult to be a Christian. The increase in knowledge and the advent of technology bred an unprecedented influx of iniquity. Sins are being advertised and promoted freely all over the society. This is not and actually should not catch us unaware. It's been predicted in the Bible.

2nd Timothy 3.1 (Living Bible Translation)

You may as well know this too, Timothy, that in the last days it is going to be very difficult to be a Christian.

Matthew 24:12 (KJV)

And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold

No time in history has immorality been cheapened and marketed than this generation. The worrisome aspect of it is that these things have invaded the pulpit and the pew in the assemblies of the people of God.

The unparalleled responsibility

In all of history, there is no assignment as global in coverage, all-inclusive in the required-resources, all-encompassing in its execution and all-embracing in its targeted audience as the Great Commission. It dwarfs the grandest mega-corporation if juxtaposed. The Great Commission is that singular assignment the LORD JESUS CHRIST gave the Church. No excuse will be rational enough if abandoned.

The need to take this responsibility of making JESUS known where HE has not been known before is more pungent and urgent now than any other time in history. Prophet Habakkuk prophesied that "the knowledge of the glory of God will cover the earth as water covers the sea" Habakkuk 2:14

1. The world population has grown tremendously. We have about 8 billion people on the planet earth today. A greater percentage of this whooping population do not know Christ. Isaiah 5.14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. (KJV)

2. In our days, the harvest is plenteous, the Bishops, Reverends, Pastors, Evangelist, Prophets and title holders are also plenteous; but the labourers are very few. The genuine labourers are evidently few.
3. The growing hostility from the agents of darkness has assumed a worrisome dimension.
4. The end is nearer than anyone could imagine. Whatever need be done for the LORD, we must do it fast.

The unparalleled opportunity

The good side of technology is that it makes doable things that in the time past are considered impossible. Travelling round the world to proclaim the gospel is possible in our generation because of the ease of transportation. The amazing breakthrough in Media technology has made it possible for someone to speak in one corner of the world and the entire human race will hear. The social media is turning the whole world into one small coverable village. The work of the great commission has never been easier in all of human history than it is in this century.

Changes and complexities are the two Cs that are positively shaping missionary work globally today. Complexities in the international affairs are forcing some anti-gospel legislation to bow. The Spirit of the LORD is indeed moving all over the world as shakable are being shaken so that only that which cannot be shaken shall remain.

Heb. 12.28

Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear. (NKJV)

In conclusion, the 21st century Christians:

- Have unparalleled advantages
- Faced with unparalleled challenges
- Carrying unparalleled responsibilities
- Equipped with unparalleled opportunities

IF YOU WONT
WHEN?

May you and I not be a disappointment to God and to our generation.

Psalm 78:9

60 Lessons I learnt in 60 years

By: Olusola Adebayo

International Director

The word lesson, inter alia, means a valuable insight, moral, or truth learned from an event, achievement, or mistake.

In 2021, I was in the northernmost part of the Republic of Benin, travelling from Natitingou to Kandi in a Sienna car, in the company of three TKP brothers. We needed to pass through some villages in the thick jungles. I did most of the driving because I had an international driver's licence.

After some hours, I became tired, so another brother, who did not have an international driver's licence, took over the driving. Right in the middle of nowhere, we came to a police checkpoint. Amazingly, the officer in charge spoke Queen's English, despite being a French-speaking person.

The police officer insisted that he would take us to his station because the person driving was not in possession of an international driver's licence. Yes, he had a Nigerian driver's licence, but only an international driver's licence could authorise him to drive in the Republic of Benin. All our pleas fell on deaf ears.

I did not say anything throughout. At a point, the HOLY SPIRIT gave me a word, and I beckoned to the police officer in charge of the checkpoint. I said to him:

"The Almighty sent us on an assignment. We met a mighty man on the way. I think the mighty man should bow to the Almighty!"

The officer stared at me. He digested what I had said for a few seconds and then said, "Sir, you can go."

We gave the man and his colleagues some of the French gospel tracts we had in the car. As soon as we left the checkpoint, we entered into a powerful session of worship.

Many of the lessons you are about to read are experiential.

These lessons, gathered from my childhood days to the present, have shaped my view of GOD, life, eternity, relationships, ministry, the world, the things I embrace, and the things I reject.

These lessons have also taught me my frailty and HOW DESPERATELY I NEED GOD EVERY MOMENT!

They have taught me that the devil is mighty, but he is not Almighty. Only GOD is Almighty. All the mighty ones submit to the ALMIGHTY. Colossians 2:10.

Below is the list containing 60 lessons I learnt in the first 60 years of my life.

Blessings.

Shalom.

Love.

60 Lessons I learnt in 60 years

By: Olusola Adebayo

International Director
The Kingdom Projects (TKP)

1. I learnt to start each day and end each day with "IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST." Philippians 2:10–11
2. GOD is love, and HIS love is everlasting. Jeremiah 31:3
3. GOD is merciful. HIS mercies triumph over judgment.
4. GOD forgives, cleanses, and intentionally forgets confessed and forsaken wrongs. Psalm 130:3–4; 1 John 1:9
5. I have learnt to balance the above with the experiential knowledge that GOD cannot be taken for granted.
6. I am indisputably connected with the SOURCE. However, Samson's story taught me that my connection with the SOURCE can be strong and, at the same time, fragile.
7. GOD values my relationship with HIM above my service to HIM.
8. Frequent use of the words: "THANK YOU, JESUS!"
9. My brain is too small to calculate how miracles happen!
10. So, I place BIBLE SENSE above COMMON SENSE.
11. The Bible is my final authority in all things.
12. WHEN GOD IS READY TO BLESS MY LIFE, tests may come my way, temptations may multiply, my patience may be tried, my attitude buttons may be pushed, and sometimes I may be given an assignment that doesn't look rational. I have learnt that all these may be indications that breakthrough is near.
13. I WILL NOT DIE A DWARF if I partner with GOD and autofocus on HIM.
14. I should always check my spiritual carburetor to avoid sporadic and unsteady surging and to enjoy steady movement in my ministerial journey.
15. My GOD is the Unchanging Changer in a changing world.
16. To be a long-runner in life, I must be saturated with and live by Winning Wisdom.
17. I need to update my spiritual anti-virus continually through knowledge and periodic spiritual retreats.
18. To have greener leaves and greater fruits all the time, I should continually maintain deeper roots.
19. GOD meant it when HE said in Proverbs 4:18 (Message Version), "THE LONGER I LIVE, THE BRIGHTER I SHINE."

20. It is normal and biblical to start small, but abnormal and unbiblical to remain small.
21. GOD will bring people into my life—some for a reason, others for a season, and some special people for a lifetime!
22. I cannot choose how people treat me, but I can choose how I respond to people.
23. The heart of a king truly is in the hand of the LORD.
24. HE rules not only over the entire universe and all creation, but also over the affairs of men.
25. I should not expect man to do for me what GOD alone can do.
26. At whatever pedestal I arrive, I always believe that, with GOD on my side, THERE IS MORE to know, to be, to do, and to enjoy. Hallelujah!
27. I am mindful of GOD'S timetable for my life.
28. GOD has HIS own unique currencies with which HE rewards our lives and service unto HIM.
29. Joy is a matter of choice.
30. When I forgive others, I am doing myself a favour.
31. The practice of advance forgiveness makes forgiving very easy.
32. Quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. (I'm still praying, crying to GOD, and working on this...) James 1:19
33. The hand that gives is always on top.
34. GOD speaks according to HIS size, not according to man's size.
35. GOD'S time is the best.
36. GOD is never late.
37. GOD can turn a man's mistake into a miracle.
38. GOD can turn opposition into opportunity.
39. HE turns adversity into advantage.
40. GOD is my Source, my Secret, and my Strength. I learnt this experientially.
41. One with GOD is a majority! I have seen Elijah's experience on Mount Carmel repeated in my life!
42. GOD truly raises the poor from the dust and lifts the beggar from the ash heap, to set them among princes and make them inherit the throne of glory. "For the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S, and He has set the world upon them." — 1 Samuel 2:8
Absolutely! Awesome! I'm a living testimony! I have many stories to tell on this!
43. There is a time to make history, and there is a time to tell history.
44. It is possible to stand right and firm and let GOD prove HIMSELF, even if everybody around is compromising.
45. Two fish and five loaves can still feed 5,000. I will always joyfully give GOD my two fish and five loaves.
46. If I keep my gaze on JESUS CHRIST, I can walk on water. Matthew 14:29

47. I can remain unshaken and stable even amid all the global shakings. Despite all the worldwide upheavals, GOD still has HIS mark of protection, provision, and peace upon all HIS sons and daughters.
48. Peace does not mean the absence of danger; it means the presence of GOD.
49. In the battles of life and ministry, one of the things that matters is the size of the fight in the dog, not the size of the dog in the fight.
50. Wherever anything goes, the going is always downward.
51. Any human being can leave you if such a person chooses to, but be sure that GOD does not leave you.
52. GOD takes seriously those who take HIM seriously.
53. In recent times, I have learnt to take things easy and generously use phrases such as: "I'm grateful." "You look good." "Your tailor/stylist did a good job." "Your haircut/hairdo is superb." "I love you."
54. After my 40th birthday, I began intentionally to embrace laughter and scream out words like: "Lovely!" "Fantastic!" "Cocastic and Cocaolaistic!" "7Upstic!"
55. All my life, I have loved to breathe in and breathe out the words: "THANK YOU, JESUS!" "AMEN!" "OUR GOD IS GOOD!" "OUR GOD REIGNS!" "MY FATHER WHO ART IN HEAVEN, HALLOWED BE THY NAME!"
56. Recently, I began to fantasise with the word "Neverlate!" It means to me: GOD is never late! HE is always on time!
57. Several years ago, I made a return trip with my wife to Ile-Ife and Osogbo. It was the first time that both of us had travelled without our children. The eldest should have been about nine years old, the second daughter about seven, and the youngest about three. We returned to Ilorin a few hours later. Our children came to welcome us at the door with the song:
- "GOD IS FAITHFUL, HIS FAITHFULNESS IS FOREVERMORE.
GOD IS FAITHFUL, HIS FAITHFULNESS IS FOREVERMORE."
- Noticing that these very young children had been praying for us since we left, we became so emotional. Since that day, we have adopted the song as our family anthem.
58. I love to tell every young person I meet: "THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT AND BEAUTIFUL."
59. From my 30th birthday, the human names I have pronounced most often are MD, Dorcas, Deborah, and Esther.
60. JESUS CHRIST, THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER. My love and allegiance, all through time and eternity!

TKP VISION

Reaching the nation with the gospel through our vocations.

TKP MISSION

- To mobilize the church for missionary work
- To train Christians on how to combine their secular work with preaching the gospel and raising the disciples for Jesus Christ.
- To facilitate the involvement of Christian professionals, technicians and artisans in reaching the unreached nation with the gospel.

YOUR PART

Not everyone can go to the mission field, but everyone is expected by God to be a stakeholder in what is going on in the mission field.

BECOMING A PARTNER

To be a partner of TKP in mission simply means you prayerfully decide a means of financially supporting TKP Missions on a regular basis (i.e. monthly, quarterly or annually). You can set aside a particular percentage of your income for missions. When you do that, you are playing your role in taking the gospel around the world. In heaven someone will thank you for the seed you have sown into their lives. Because you give, the missionaries were able to reach them and the outcome is evident throughout eternity.
